Farming for the Future Conference - Each year PASA organizes one of the largest sustainable agriculture programs in the United States in the form of its annual Farming for the Future ("FFF") Conference. Offering internationally known keynote speakers and over a hundred different workshops and focused learning opportunities, the FFF Conference grew in attendance from about 1,000 in 2001 to over 2,000 in 2011, its 20th annual edition. Speakers and attendees have represented as many as 40 states and eight different countries in a single year, and many in attendance have been coming since the very early years. Programs held as the FFF Conference range from a wide variety of 80 minute sessions to more intensive learning experiences that last one, two or even three days, and all of them address topics of relevance to farming and/or sustainable food systems. Over half of the participants each year are farmers, and many more folks who wish to farm, with hundreds of them each year being sponsored by scholarship funds raised by PASA and its various partners.

Regional Projects - In 2001 PASA conducted research among its members that indicated a strong and growing interest in developing marketing programs intended to educate the public about the benefits of consuming locally and sustainably raised foods, including support for the "Triple Bottom Line" of farm viability, environmental protection and social responsibility. In order to address this interest, PASA began to develop regional offices around Pennsylvania with an aim, not only to disseminate our normal membership benefits and programs, but especially to develop public awareness, partnerships among foodservice businesses, and urban outreach regarding sustainability in food systems generally speaking. The result has been the establishment of two permanent offices in the Pittsburgh and Philadelphia areas, with more likely on the way in coming years. Through these offices, PASA manages its popular activities related to the Buy Fresh Buy Local and Good Food Neighborhood brands.

Member Services - Now with over 6,000 regular members, and many more supporters and friends, PASA has grown tremendously since its beginning in 1992. In order to maintain this pace of growth, and to attract even more new members, we have developed a variety of programs aimed at facilitating communication with and among our members. Such programs include a website that is updated regularly with recent news and items of interest, various e-mail lists with both regional and topical themes, a very active facebook page and a bi-monthly newsletter, "Passages", that is highly regarded across the country for its educational nature and forthright spirit. We now have staff in the member services area focusing specifically on members who represent farms, businesses and the consuming public, and have assigned regional staff to assist with delivering such services as well. On behalf of our members, we also stay in touch at the local, statewide and national levels regarding policy issues of importance to farmers and/or sustainable food systems.

Compensation of Officers, Directors, Trustees, Key Employees, Highest Compensated Employees, and Independent Contractors

Check if Schedule O contains a response to any question in this Part VII

Section A. Officers, Directors, Trustees, Key Employees, and Highest Compensated Employees

1a Complete this table for all persons required to be listed. Report compensation for the calendar year ending with or within the organization's tax year.

- List all of the organization's current officers, directors, trustees (whether individuals or organizations), regardless of amount of compensation. Enter -0- in columns (D), (E), and (F) if no compensation was paid.
- List all of the organization's current key employees, if any. See instructions for definition of "key employee."
- List the organization's five current highest compensated employees (other than an officer, director, trustee or key employee) who received reportable compensation (Box 5 of Form W-2 and/or Box 7 of Form 1099-MISC) of more than $100,000 from the organization and any related organizations.
- List all of the organization's former officers, key employees, or highest compensated employees who received more than $100,000 of reportable compensation from the organization and any related organizations.
- List all of the organization's former directors or trustees that received, in the capacity as a former director or trustee of the organization, more than $10,000 of reportable compensation from the organization and any related organizations.

List persons in the following order: individual trustees or directors; institutional trustees; officers; key employees; highest compensated employees; and former such persons.

☐ Check this box if neither the organization nor any related organization compensated any current officer, director, or trustee

| Description of Uncertain Tax Positions Under FIN 48 | Part X, Line 2   | During 2009 the Association adopted the recognition requirements for uncertain tax positions as required by generally accepted accounting principles, with no cumulative effect adjustment required. Income tax benefits are recognized for income tax positions taken, or expected to be taken, in a tax return, only when it is determined that the income tax position will more-likely-than-not be sustained upon examination by taxing authorities. The Association has examined its tax positions and believes they will be sustained upon examination and does not anticipate any adjustments that would result in a material adverse affect on the Association's financial condition, results of operations or cash flows. |

|                              | Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 12c | Each director and officer shall annually complete and file with the Secretary of the Board a "Board Member Conflict of Interest Questionnaire" which is designed to disclose potential conflicts. The Fiduciary Committee will report disclosures of financial or familial interest and all material facts to the Board, and if a Board discussion is necessary, the interested person shall leave the meeting while the Board makes a determination of a conflict of interest and votes upon the matter. If appropriate, alternatives to the proposed transaction or arrangement would be investigated by the Fiduciary Committee. If a more advantageous transaction is not reasonably attainable under circumstances that would not give rise to a conflict of interest, the Fiduciary Committee shall determine by a majority vote of the disinterested Directors whether the transaction is in PASA's best interest, whether the transaction is fair and reasonable to PASA, and whether to enter into the transaction with such determination. |
|                              | Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 15a | When evaluating the terms of a proposed employment contract, the annual compensation is reviewed by the Treasurer, who uses salary surveys and market comparisons for comparable positions to identify reasonable compensation and benefit levels. The final terms are approved by the Board of Directors prior to executing the contract. This process was completed in June 2013 for the Executive Director (top management official). The organization does not compensate any officers and no other employees meet the IRS' definition of a key employee.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |
