Dear IRS,

I am the former Treasurer of the Griffin Middle School PTA. It has recently come to my attention that your organization did not receive our last two years tax returns (2012 & 2013). I do so apologize for this. We had a fellow PTA member's husband do the returns for us as he is a CPA and we were led to believe that they were filed electronically on our behalf. Only after receiving a penalty letter in the mail recently and me making the phone call to your organization did we find out otherwise. I have sense tried to contact this PTA person and have gotten no response.

I have included both client copies we received of our tax returns and hope this will suffice for your records and that any penalties can be dropped.

We are a non-profit organization and paying this penalty will impair our abilities to provide future programs for our Griffin Middle School students as it would have to come out of a budget item for the year. I would hate for them to be penalized for something out of their control. I can assure you that I and our PTA Board fully believed these returns were filled.

For the 2014 school year, we have enlisted a different CPA and plan to get a copy of the electronic filing receipt to prevent this in the future.

Again, I do hope the attached will suffice and our penalties dropped. If you have further questions or need anything else please let me know. I happy to provide anything you need.

Kind regards,

Jana Akin
2013 - 2015 Griffin Middle School PTA Treasurer
