Form 990, Part III, Line 4c - Program Service Accomplishments

The Court Diversion program provides mentors to guide adolescents and young adults to meet their conditions with the courts and/or probation. Each referral is required to participate in the Community Resolution Conference process. The conference process provides facilitators who bring together the victim, offender, families, mentor and community participants to provide a chance for victims to talk about how they felt and how the offense impacted them. For offenders it is an opportunity to accept responsibility for their actions and restore relationships. The program has worked with 226 juvenile and young adult offenders, with 90% victim satisfaction of the process, a 90% success rate of agreements being completed and a 85% success rate of individuals not re-offending. For those juveniles that did re-offend, the average time between first offense and the second was 16.5 months- almost triple the state-wide average of 5.7 months.
