Part III

Statement of Program Service Accomplishments

Check if Schedule O contains a response to any question in this Part III

1

Briefly describe the organization’s mission

The Tucson Festival of Books brings together authors, publishers and the reading public in a family-friendly community event. Net proceeds of the festival are used to promote literacy in Southern Arizona.

2

Did the organization undertake any significant program services during the year which were not listed on the prior Form 990 or 990-EZ?

If “Yes,” describe these new services on Schedule O

3

Did the organization cease conducting, or make significant changes in how it conducts, any program services?

If “Yes,” describe these changes on Schedule O

4

Describe the organization’s program service accomplishments for each of its three largest program services, as measured by expenses. Section 501(c)(3) and 501(c)(4) organizations are required to report the amount of grants and allocations to others, the total expenses, and revenue, if any, for each program service reported.

4a

(Code) (Expenses $ 680,012 including grants of $ 200,001) (Revenue $ 250,993)

The fifth annual Tucson Festival of Books was held March 9 and 10, 2013 on the University of Arizona campus. Authors, exhibitors and book lovers of all kinds attended the festival which attracted more than 120,000 people to the UA campus and raised $200,000 to advance literacy and education in southern Arizona. The 2013 festival attracted more than 450 authors, 300 exhibitors and staged a multitude of activities: the Author9s Table Dinner with 850 in attendance, hundreds of presentations and discussions, workshops for aspiring authors, book signings, free book give-away distributed over 5,000 titles in the Children9s area, dozens of hands-on activities conducted in Science City, and much, much more. Over 1,200 festival volunteers assisted with managing the event during the weekend.

O01	Officer directors etc family relationship Part VI line 2	William Viner, president, and Brenda Viner, secretary, are husband and wife
O02	Form 990 governing body review Part VI line 11	Form 990 is initially reviewed by the organization's treasurer and, once approved, is presented to the full board of directors for ratification prior to filing
O03	Conflict of interest policy compliance Part VI line 12c	The conflict of interest policy applies to any director, officer, or member of a committee with governing board delegated powers who has a direct or indirect financial interest in a transaction under consideration by the corporation. Such individual has a duty to disclose the existence of the financial interest and will be given the opportunity to disclose all material facts to the board of directors. After disclosure of the financial interest and all material facts and any discussion, the interested person shall leave the board meeting and the remaining directors shall decide if a conflict of interest exists. After exercising due diligence, the board of directors shall determine whether the corporation can obtain with reasonable efforts a more advantageous transaction or arrangement from a person or entity that would not give rise to a conflict of interest. If a more advantageous transaction or arrangement is not reasonably possible, the directors shall determine by a majority vote of the disinterested directors whether to enter into the transaction or arrangement with the interested person. If the board of directors has reasonable cause to believe a director has failed to disclose actual or possible conflicts of interest, it shall inform the director of the basis for such belief and afford the director an opportunity to explain the alleged failure to disclose. If, after hearing the director's response and after making further investigation as warranted by the circumstances, the board of directors determines the director has failed to disclose an actual or possible conflicts of interest, it shall inform the director of the basis for such belief and afford the director an opportunity to explain the alleged failure to disclose. If, after hearing the director's response and after making further investigation as warranted by the circumstances, the board of directors determines the director has failed to disclose an actual or possible conflict of interest, it shall take appropriate disciplinary and corrective action.
