990, Part VI, Line 11 - After the 990 forms were completed by the ACS accounting department and reviewed by outside tax professionals, copies of the 990 forms were sent to the ACS Finance Committee for review (ACS Board of Regents delegated this responsibility to the ACS Finance Committee). The ACS Finance Committee was given ample time to review the documents and address any concerns to the Chief Financial Officer. Once the ACS Finance Committee's concerns were addressed, the ACS accounting department revised the 990 forms (if necessary), emailed a copy to the full Board of Regents, and filed them with the IRS.

990, Part VI, Line 12c - The College has conflict of interest policies for employees, consultants, and board members. All employees, consultants, and board members are required to sign a disclosure statement each year, which are collected and disseminated by the Chief Financial Officer's office. There is also an ACS Conflicts of Interest Committee that meets periodically as the need arises to discuss issues that relate to conflicts of interest. The Committee accounts for the receipt of disclosure statements and follow up on any issues. This information is then reported to the ACS Finance Committee of the Board of Regents. If the ACS Finance Committee feels there are conflicts that are questionable in nature, they are reported to the ACS Board of Regents Chair and Treasurer for action. The Board of Regents Executive Committee shall take action on any presumed or potential violation of this policy by a member of leadership to ensure that a conflict of interest does not arise or does not continue. In addition to any legal penalties, such action may include, but shall not be limited to, oral admonishment, written reprimand, resignation, and restitution. A member of leadership who disagrees with the findings or recommendations of the Finance Committee or the action of the Board of Regents Executive Committee may appeal the decision to the Board of Regents.

990, Part VI, Line 15 - The College has policies and procedures concerning compensation increases, performance evaluations, and job evaluations. In addition, merit increases are included as a budget parameter for review by the ACS Finance Committee as is the addition of any new employee or human resource benefit proposal. The College has an ACS Executive Compensation Committee as a subcommittee to the ACS Finance Committee. The Committee is comprised of the Board of Regents Chair, Board of Regents Treasurer, Board of Governors Secretary, and a member of the ACS Finance Committee. The ACS Executive Compensation Committee's purpose is as follows: procedures to create a "rebuttable presumption of reasonableness" in connection with IRS intermediate sanctions regulations. Responsibilities are to ensure that compensation for each "disqualified person" is reasonable. ACS Human Resources provides comparability data to the Committee in the form of surveys, other similar organizations, geographical comparisons, and actual written offers. For Paperwork Reduction Act Notice, see the Instructions for Form 990 or 990-EZ.
