Summary

Activities & Governance	1	Briefly describe the organization's mission or most significant activities Canton Country Day School offers children in preschool through eighth grade a solid educational foundation by cultivating an environment in which scholarship, responsibility, and respect for others flourish along with creativity, enthusiasm, and self-respect. Within this stimulating academic environment, the school encourages children, with the support of their families, to be active seekers of knowledge, examine their convictions honestly and embrace them humbly, both in word and deed, recognize themselves as participants in a common humanity and citizens of a common universe, discover their own creative powers and labor patiently to surpass ready achievement and wonder at the mysteries that transcend their understanding and challenge their imagination. Dedicated to developing character and the abilities to think and communicate clearly, Canton Country Day seeks to fully prepare its graduates to meet the challenges of rigorous secondary school programs and to assume positions of respo

Identifier	Return Reference	Explanation
Part X	Part X FIN48 Footnote	Effective January 1, 2009, generally accepted accounting principles require the organization to evaluate the level of uncertainty related to whether tax positions taken will be sustained upon examination. Any positions taken that do not meet the more-likely-than-not threshold must be quantified and recorded as a liability for unrecognized tax benefits in the accompanying balance sheet along with any associated interest and penalties that would be payable to the taxing authorities upon examination. Interest and penalties associated with unrecognized tax benefits would be classified as additional income taxes in the statement of income. The organization believes that none of the tax positions taken would materially impact the financial statements and no such liabilities have been recorded.
Part V, Line 4	Part V, Line 4 Intended uses of the endowment fund	These endowment funds are used to further the exempt purpose of the organization of providing a quality education to students of all elementary and junior high ages by providing financial aid for the services provided.
