Identifier	Return Reference	Explanation
Description of Intended Use of Endowment Funds	Part V, Line 4	The investment objective of JPA for unrestricted funds is to generate a reasonable rate of return at a relatively low level of risk, seeking to preserve at a minimum the real (inflation-adjusted) value of the fund over time. The total rates of return sought to be generated should be greater than those of benchmarks selected by the Finance Committee from time to time, while avoiding undue risk and generating sufficient liquidity to help fund operations. The objective of investing restricted program funds shall be preservation of principal, liquidity timed to spending needs and reasonable current income, subject to grant restrictions.
Description of Uncertain Tax Positions Under FIN 48	Part X, Line 2	The Association is exempt from federal income taxes under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and applicable state law. Accordingly, no provision for such taxes has been recognized in these financial statements. Accounting standards on accounting for uncertainty in income taxes addresses the determination of whether tax benefits claimed or expected to be claimed on a tax return should be recorded in the financial statements. Under this guidance, the Association may recognize the tax benefit from an uncertain tax position only if it is more likely than not that the tax position will be sustained on examination by taxing authorities, based on the technical merits of the position. Examples of tax positions include the tax-exempt status of the Association and various positions related to the potential sources of unrelated business income tax (UBIT). The tax benefits recognized in the financial statements from any such position are measured based on the largest benefit that has a greater than 50 percent likelihood of being realized upon ultimate settlement. The Association has reviewed the tax positions for the open tax years (current and prior three tax years) and has concluded that no provision for income tax is required in the financial statements. There were no unrecognized tax benefits identified or recorded as liabilities during the period covered by these financial statements. Form 990s are filed by the Association and are subject to examination by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) up to three years from the extended due date of each return. Form 990s filed by the Association are generally no longer subject to examination for the years 2009 and prior.

	Form 990, Part VI, Section A, line 6	Any person, club, association, society, corporation, or foundation shall be eligible for election to membership in the Association, provided, however, that such person, club, association, society, corporation, or foundation has contributed to the Association in the last calendar year an amount not less than the minimum amount established from time to time by the Board of Directors as a prerequisite to membership. The Board of Directors shall also have authority to establish classes of memberships, based on the amount of annual contribution.
	Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 11	The Finance Committee, which includes JPA's Board President, is given a copy of the Form 990 for review prior to it being filed with the IRS. The Board of Directors also receives the Form 990 prior to its filing.
	Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 12c	JPA's policy does not allow any business contracts to be entered into with a board member or a related party and the executive director is the only person who can enter into a contract on behalf of JPA. The finance committee reviews the contracts entered into during the fiscal year to ensure no conflicts have arisen during the year.
	Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 15	The Finance Committee grants a pool of money to be allocated for raises on a yearly basis. Each employee has an evaluation by their supervisor on their anniversary date and is given a raise based on their merit. This raise recommendation then goes to the Executive Director for approval. The Executive Director is reviewed annually by the Executive Committee and their recommendation is approved by the board of directors, and duly noted in the minutes of the board meetings. One or more compensation surveys are gathered each year. We have used the Survey "Compensations for Not for Profits" by ADP and the Child Care Association of Illinois as examples.
	Form 990, Part VI, Section C, line 19	The organization's governing documents, conflict of interest policy, and financial statements are available to the public upon request.
