Identifier	Return Reference	Explanation
Housing allowance or residence for personal use	Schedule J, Part I, Line 1a	The President is being provided a house as a convenience to the College to allow him to conduct business affairs and be available 24/7 to respond to emergent situations that may arise. The residence is for personal use and to entertain trustees, employees, students, donors, and guests of the College. IRS instructions to Form 990 require that the fair market value of housing provided to employees by their employer be reported on Form 990, Part VII, Section A and Schedule J, Part II. As a condition of employment, the President of Elmhurst College is required to reside at the college owned residence at 360 Cottage Hill Avenue in Elmhurst. The residence serves both as a personal residence as well as a venue for regular carrying on of College business. The College has determined that the value of the use of this personal residence is not considered taxable income to the President as provided for in Internal Revenue Code Section 119. For tax year 2013, the value of the President's use of the residence is conservatively estimated to be $58,092. During tax year 2013, the President, Stephen Alan Ray made the residence his home for the year. Schedule J, Part II, Column (D) includes $58,092 of value associated with the use of the residence provided by the College.
Travel for companions	Schedule J, Part I, Line 1a	Travel expense reimbursement for companions is only allowed for the President as per his contract. According to his contract, when Dr. Ray's spouse is required to attend an event in which Dr. Ray is representing the College on official College business, the business related travel expenses for Dr. Ray's spouse will also be reimbursed by the College. The spouse's travel is not considered taxable when the purpose is to conduct business on behalf of the college. This contract is reviewed by the Human Resources Committee and approved by the full Board of Trustees.
Personal services (e.g., mail, chauffeur, chef)	Schedule J, Part I, Line 1a	An outside service is used as needed to maintain or to provide any other cleaning services necessary for the business function of the President's house.

Form 990 Review Process	Form 990, Part VI, Line 11b	The final Form 990 and its various schedules were prepared by a national CPA firm, and then were reviewed by the Key Officers of the organization prior to making it available to the Board of Trustees. After the Key Officers reviewed the form it was distributed to the Audit Committee of the Trustees at their Spring meeting. Identified necessary changes were incorporated following the board review process and a final copy of the filing was made available to all members of the board of trustees prior to filing.

Identifier	Return Reference	Explanation
Conflict of Interest Policy Monitoring & Enforcement	Form 990, Part VI, Line 12c	Conflict of interest forms are sent to Trustees, Officers, Key Employees (as applicable) and others for completion. The completed forms are returned to and reviewed by the Board Audit Committee Chair. The Audit Committee Chair together with the Audit Committee is responsible for administration of this policy. Matters of concern are brought to the Chair of the Board of Trustees or the President. Approval of compensation transactions and other transactions covered by the policy are done through a review composed entirely of individuals who do not have any conflict of interest with respect to the arrangement or transaction at hand. Persons determined to have a conflict of interest are prohibited from participating in the governing body's deliberations and decisions in transactions which may relate to the conflict. They rely upon independent comparability data or valuations prior to making a determination. Matters related to compensation rely on external expertise in higher education.

Identifier	Return Reference	Explanation
Process for Determining President's Compensation	Form 990, Part VI, Line 15a	The President's salary is reviewed annually and determined by a process established by the Board of Trustees. The process begins with obtaining data from the College and University Professional Association for Human Resources (CUPA-HR) annual Salary Survey, periodically the Yaffe & Company Executive Compensation Survey, and the form 990 tax returns of comparable institutions are also reviewed. These surveys as well as the economic condition of Elmhurst College and other information concerning higher education are analyzed by the Human Resources Committee of the Board of Trustees with the assistance of the Vice President for Finance and Administration and periodically with input from an external consultant. The Human Resources Committee performs an annual formal evaluation process of the President in executive session. Performed in fiscal year 2013, every three years the committee performs an extensive evaluation involving various faculty, staff, students and external constituents. The Human Resources Committee recommends the salary revision to the full Board of Trustees who provides the final approval. Minutes of the Human Resources Committee document the determinations made during executive session.

Identifier	Return Reference	Explanation
Process for Determining Other Officers' Compensation	Form 990, Part VI, Line 15b	Top management's (Vice Presidents and Deans) salaries are reviewed annually by a process similar to all other employees. The President performs a formal evaluation. Using the CUPA-HR annual Salary Survey, the annual performance evaluation and the financial constraints of the College, the President then determines the salary revisions which are reviewed by the Human Resources Committee of the Board of Trustees. All other key employee salaries are reviewed annually by a similar process as the top management. Formal performance evaluations are performed by the supervisor of each key employee with recommendations for salary revisions provided to the top management employee over that area of responsibility. The evaluations and recommendations together with the comparison to the CUPA-HR annual Salary Survey and the preset budget for salary increases are reviewed by each top management administrator with recommendations presented to the President. Final approval is given by the President.
