Identifier	Return Reference	Explanation
	Part III, Line 4	Judson University houses collections of art from many sources such as donors, members of staff and faculty, and original work by family members of past officers. Some artwork provides a historical reference to our founders and enhances our unique campus culture. The artwork on display provides examples of different media and applications of art that serve to further the educational experience of our students and helps to initiate an understanding of the relationship of art and design to man's creative faith-life as a creature "bearing God's image" and as a community member.
	Part IV, Line 2b	The University acts as the custodian for many Student Organizations on campus.
Description of Intended Use of Endowment Funds	Part V, Line 4	The University's endowment consists of approximately 165 individual funds established primarily for scholarship purposes.
Description of Uncertain Tax Positions Under FIN 48	Part X, Line 2	The financial statement effects of a tax position taken or expected to be taken are recognized in the financial statements when it is more likely than not, based on the technical merits, that the position will be sustained upon examination. Interest and penalties, if any, are included in expenses in the statements of activities. As of June 30, 2013 and 2012, the University had no uncertain tax positions that qualify for recognition or disclosure in the financial statements. The University files information tax returns in the U.S. and Illinois. The University is generally no longer subject to U.S. federal and state income tax examinations by tax authorities for years before 2008.
