In a year, The Weinberg Community for Senior Living is home to almost 220 older adults at either Gidwitz Place (Gidwitz) for Assisted Living or The Friend Center for Alzheimer's Care, one of the first and largest assisted living residences in the state The Weinberg Community is a safe, yet stimulating environment for older adults who need additional assistance with everyday tasks like medication reminders, bathing or housekeeping Residents also have many opportunities to participate in socialization and life enrichment activities Though primarily for a private pay population, approximately 30% of residents receive some type of financial assistance through a CJE-sponsored scholarship program, donor funds or state government subsidy Assisted living communities bridge the gap between living independently at home and placement in a skilled nursing facility A recent assessment at Gidwitz indicated that residents are requiring more assistance due to their increased age (average 85) and their vast medical needs To address the needs of the frailer, more medically-complex resident, CJE established the Gidwitz Plus program to help residents "age in place" at Gidwitz instead of moving to a nursing home before it is necessary The average length of stay at Weinberg is 3 3 years compared to the national average of 2 2 years

(Code) (Expenses $ 5,820,480 including grants of $) (Revenue $ 6,464,115)

CJE Independent Housing is for seniors who do not require personal or medical care, it allows them to live independently in the same neighborhoods where they raised their families with the security of shared life circumstances and availability of CJE services The six apartment buildings (Farwell House, Jarvis House, Krasnow Residence, Swartzberg House, Village Center, and Levy House) offer studio, one - or two - bedroom apartments Residents are fully independent, but each apartment is equipped with an emergency response system that is monitored by CJE staff

Identifier	Return Reference	Explanation
	Part IV, Line 2b	CJE collects and holds refundable security deposits from its residents to cover expenses of any repairs or damages to the premises greater than normal "wear and tear." In addition, CJE holds and manages spending funds for some of its residents.
Description of Intended Use of Endowment Funds	Part V, Line 4	The endowment funds, which includes both Board designated and temporarily restricted funds, were established over a period of several years via donations and bequests received from donors' estates. Distributions are made from the endowment funds on an annual basis and transferred to CJE SeniorLife's undesignated fund to support operations and capital improvements. The endowment fund distributions are computed using a formal spending policy that has been approved by the Board of Directors.
Description of Uncertain Tax Positions Under FIN 48	Part X, Line 2	Council for Jewish Elderly (CJE), an Illinois not-for-profit corporation, and its controlled affiliates are exempt from income taxes under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and applicable state law. CJE files a Form 990 (Return of Organization Exempt from Income Tax) annually. When this return is filed, it is highly certain that some positions taken would be sustained upon examination by the taxing authorities, while others are subject to uncertainty about the merits of the position taken or the amount of the position that would ultimately be sustained. The benefit of a tax position is recognized in the consolidated financial statements in the period during which, based on all available evidence, management believes that it is more likely than not that the position will be sustained upon examination, including the resolution of appeals or litigation processes, if any. Tax positions are not offset or aggregated with other positions. Tax positions that meet the "more likely than not" recognition threshold are measured as the largest amount of tax benefit that is more than 50 percent likely to be realized on settlement with the applicable taxing authority. The portion of the benefits associated with tax positions taken that exceeds the amount measured as described above is reflected as a liability for unrecognized tax benefits in the accompanying consolidated statements of financial position along with any associated interest and penalties that would be payable to the taxing authorities upon examination. As of and during year ended June 30, 2013, there were no unrecognized tax benefits identified and recorded as liabilities. Forms 990 filed by CJE are subject to examination by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) up to three years from the extended due date of each return. Forms 990 filed by CJE are no longer subject to examination for the years ended June 30, 2009 and prior.

	Form 990, Part VI, Section A, line 6	Every person who is a member of the Jewish Federation of Metropolitan Chicago shall be a member
	Form 990, Part VI, Section A, line 7a	At each election of Elected Directors, each member shall have one vote for as many persons as there are Elected Directors to be elected
	Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 11	Completed sections of the IRS Form 990 were first reviewed by the Administrative, Compensation and Governance Committees. A subsequent final review of the entire return was made by the Audit Committee. Recommended committee revisions were made if necessary and the Form 990 was sent to the entire board for approval prior to filing.
	Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 12c	A conflict of interest questionnaire is circulated to all Board members and key employees on an annual basis. This process is managed by CJEs President and CEO and Senior Director of Human Resources and Learning who ensures all questionnaires are completed. The completed questionnaires are reviewed by management and any conflicts are disclosed to the Board of Directors. If a Director does have a conflict or business relationship with CJE, he or she is required to refrain from any vote or active participation in any matter in which such Key Individual or any member of his or her family may have a financial interest.
	Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 15	CJE has a Compensation Committee that approves compensation for the President and CEO and Executive Vice President which is comprised of the Board Chair, Past Chair, Vice Chair, and up to three other appointed Directors. The Committee uses comparable data from other aging non-profit organizations to ensure compensation for the President and CEO and Executive Vice President is consistent with the market, including but not limited to annual surveys from the Association of Jewish Aging Services (AJAS) and American Association of Homes and Services for the Aging (AAHSA). The process for determining the compensation is documented. CJE also has a staff Compensation Committee that approves compensation for all other Officers and Key Employees which is comprised of the President and CEO, Executive Vice President, and the Senior Director of Human Resources and Learning. The Committee uses comparable data from other aging non-profit organizations to ensure compensation for all other Officers and Key Employees is consistent with the market, including but not limited to annual surveys from the Life Services Network (LSN) and American Association of Homes and Services for the Aging (AAHSA). The process for determining the compensation is documented.
	Form 990, Part VI, Section C, line 19	The organization's Form 990, governing documents, conflict of interest policy and audited financial statements are made available to all volunteer members of the Board of Directors. With regards to the general public, the organization provides these documents upon request.
