Identifier	Return Reference	Explanation
	Form 990, Part VI, Section A, line 2	Officers Smith and Vossler both render services to Wellspring Management Services Company (WMS), an unrelated foreign entity in the "Middle East and North Africa" region. Officer Smith serves as managing director for WMS and officer Vossler renders services to WMS as an employee. The mission of WMS is to provide faith-based education and training services.
	Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 11	Form 990 is prepared by an independent accounting firm. A copy of the Form 990 and related schedules is then provided to the board's audit committee for review, dissemination to the full board, and approval prior to filing. Management is familiar with the Form 990 and reviews numerical and non-numerical portions of the form for accuracy using the audited financial statements and other documentation maintained by the organization. For board review, the relevant board members compare the report with the audited financial statements and after review, the audit committee chair provides written approval to the Assistant Treasurer for filing.
	Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 12c	1. Annual Conflict of Interest Report. The audit committee of the board performs an annual survey of potential conflicts of interest and related party transactions by requiring that each board member, officer, and senior manager (key employee) complete an annual conflict of interest questionnaire disclosing such facts. These reports are reviewed by the audit committee and, as appropriate, by legal counsel, auditors, or another independent person. 2. Further Duty to Disclose. Additionally, a board member, officer, or senior manager should inform a more senior member of management and/or the chair of the audit committee if they become aware that a proposed transaction or other matter may be a related party transaction or involve an actual or potential conflict of interest. Such disclosure is not necessary if the matter was previously disclosed or if it is obvious and therefore known to the board. 3. Duty to Abstain From Decision Making. A person with an actual or potential conflict of interest shall not participate in a decision about a transaction, and no member of the board of directors shall vote on a transaction in which he or she has a direct or indirect interest. 4. Opportunity to Present. The interested person shall be given the opportunity to disclose all material facts concerning a potential conflict of interest and the transaction to disinterested board or management members and to respond to their questions or concerns. 5. Evaluation of the Conflict. The board (or a subcommittee of the board) or a disinterested member of management will first evaluate the situation to determine whether there is an actual conflict of interest and whether it is "material." (A conflict of interest is "material" if it might affect, or might reasonably be thought by others to affect, the judgment or conduct of the interested party.) If so, a further evaluation of the transaction will occur. 6. Evaluation of the Transaction. Transactions with interested directors, officers, or members of senior management are permitted if they are fair and reasonable to the corporation, in its best interests, and for its own benefit. The board should exercise reasonable due diligence (appropriate to the size and significance of the transaction) in evaluating these factors. It may first consider whether to solicit competing bids in the case of a related party transaction and whether a more advantageous transaction can be obtained with reasonable effort from a person or entity that would not give rise to a conflict of interest. The evaluation may be conducted by the full board, a committee of disinterested directors, management, or an outside party, including the corporation's auditors, legal counsel, or outside experts. Such evaluation must occur if there are concerns about private inurement or excess benefit transactions. 7. Vote on the Transaction. The interested person shall not participate in any vote to approve the transaction. All proposed transactions where there is a potential conflict of interest must be approved by a vote of a majority of disinterested directors. 8. Records of the Board. All votes on transactions involving an actual or potential conflict of interest shall record the names of the persons with an interest in the transaction and of the persons who considered whether there is a potential conflict of interest, who evaluated the fairness of the transaction, and who voted on the transaction. Copies of any supporting material or reports shall be attached. 9. Disclosures. Any material related-party transactions must be disclosed to the corporation's auditors and in its audited financial statements. 10. Violations of the Conflicts of Interest Policy. If the board has reasonable cause to believe that a director, officer, or member of senior management has failed to disclose actual or possible conflicts of interest or pertinent facts concerning the arrangements, it shall inform the officer or director of the basis for such belief and require explanation.
	Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 15	Currently the organization has no paid employees, however, on an annual basis, when approving budgets for the affiliated organizations listed in Schedule R, the board uses salary surveys and comparability data from independent industry sources to evaluate the compensation paid to officers and key employees, if any. The evaluation process and approval of compensation are contemporaneously documented in the board minutes.
	Form 990, Part VI, Section C, line 18	LDI Foundation, Inc. makes its Form 1023 and Form 990s available to interested parties upon written request.
	Form 990, Part VI, Section C, line 19	Disclosure of governing documents, policies, and financial statements are made to interested parties upon written request.
	Form 990, Part VII, Column F - Explanation of Other Compensation	ROY SMITH: Non-taxable health insurance premiums paid by related organization. RANDY EBELING: Non-taxable health insurance premiums paid by related organization. CATHY MURPHY: Non-taxable health insurance premiums paid by related organization.
	Form 990 Part IX, Line 3 - Foreign Grants & Assistance	Foreign grants and assistance represent funds distributed to Management Technologies International, Inc. (MTI), a related US based organization. Consistent with Form 990, Schedule F instructions, these funds are reported as foreign grants/assistance as MTI ultimately uses the funds for foreign program activities.
