Part VI. Section B. Policies.

#12c. WI FACETS regularly and consistently monitors and enforces compliance with the agency conflict of interest policy. Board members must annually read the Board policy and sign a form confirming their understanding of the policy and must disclose any conflicts. New Board members receive the policy, must read and sign the form before starting their board service. The Board President routinely checks for possible conflicts of interest at Board meetings and reminds Board members about the need for disclosure of any new conflicts that may have arisen for individual Board members.

#15b. The Board worked with the Executive Co-Directors to develop the "WI FACETS Compensation Program" rationale and "Wage and Salary Guidelines." The Compensation Program serves as the base philosophy for employee/employer understanding of pay issues. The WI FACETS Compensation Program aims to establish its overall competitive target to the greatest extent possible to reflect a median level in relation to the area labor market. Comparability data (i.e. external market wage surveys) are regularly secured by the Executive Co-Director. Local information is obtained through the Nonprofit Center of Milwaukee's biennial salary survey, conducted in collaboration with the Agency Executives Group of Milwaukee. National market information is obtained from surveys of other U.S. Dept. of Education/Office of Special Education Programs-funded parent centers and Regional Parent TA Centers. WI FACETS' Board Personnel/Finance Committee evaluates the Executive Co-Directors and salary is set within the agency operating budget and the Compensation Program's Wage & Salary Guidelines. The Executive Co-Director evaluates & determines salary for the Associate Director. The Executive Co-Director and Associate Director evaluate and set salary for the other project supervisors. Project supervisors evaluate and determine salary for staff they supervise.

Part VI. Section C Disclosure.

#19. WI FACETS' Form 990s are available on Guide Star (www.guidestar.org) and WI FACETS' website (<http://wifacets.org/donate.php>). Governing documents, including the "Conflict of Interest" policy, are in the "Board Policies & Procedures" binder in the Executive Director's office. A table of contents lists all Board policies (date passed/revised) and includes all founding documents. The binder is available for public review on request. WI FACETS' policies and 990s are often shared with other parent centers to assist with their policy development and reporting requirements. Financial statements are provided at least quarterly to the Board. Fiscal year binders of Board minutes and financial statements are maintained in the Board reference section of the WI FACETS' office. Board members and the public may review them at anytime. Conflict of interest statement, governing documents, financial statements are included in funding applications to public entities when requested.
