As board members change jobs (this is rare as most are retired) they self-report new requirement(s) that could involve a possible conflict of interest. Any time the possibility of a "conflict of interest" issue comes up the individual board member will excuse themselves from the meeting until the issue is resolved by the remaining members.

Part VI - Section B, 15B

Compensation for our two part-time employees is determined by comparing their experience, previous employment, "gifts" they bring to the position along with their salary requests.
