	Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 12c	Any member of the Foundation's staff, board of directors, and officers must complete a conflict of interest statement annually. The Chair of the Foundation and the Executive Director review the signed statements. Any possible conflicts are brought to the board's attention. Any member of the Board of Directors who is connected with a prospective grant recipient in any official capacity shall abstain from voting on the proposed grant. This abstention shall be recorded in the minutes of the meeting at which such vote occurs. If, because of such abstentions at any such meeting of the Board of Directors, a particular grant would fail for lack of a majority vote, such a grant could be made if approved in writing by an absent but disinterested member or members within a reasonable time after the Directors' meeting at which the grant proposal was first considered. If a situation should arise in which a majority of directors would be disqualified from voting on a grant proposal because of the Foundation's conflict of interest policy, the board may, after full disclosure of the potential conflict and by majority affirmative vote, suspend the conflict of interest policy and proceed to make the grant. All discussion and action with respect to actual or potential conflicts of interest shall be entered into the minutes of the meetings where such action takes place. It is the practice of the Community Foundation to build a written record of any special relationships between prospective grantees and directors, staff, or the family members of either directors or staff for the purpose of documenting the factual record and enabling full disclosure to all directors. Such record shall be kept with the permanent minutes of the board proceedings. Any person having knowledge of any action or conduct in violation of the policies should report the information to the Chair of the Foundation board.
