Form 990, Part I, Line 1 and Part III, Line 1 - Organization's Mission

The organization's mission is to teach deaf children to talk and to teach others to do it too. It provides spoken language therapy, audiologic management and educational services to children with hearing loss from birth to early elementary years. Children with hearing loss learn to talk and experience success in their lives both in school and in the world at large. The focus of the curriculum is in accelerating development of spoken language and, when the children are ready, to help them learn the same subjects as their hearing age-mates so they can catch up with their hearing peers and be full participants in the mainstream. The consistent, customized instruction, combined with high expectations and standards, results in high achievement for the students.

Form 990, Sch D, Part X, Line 2 - FIN 48 (ASC 740) Footnote

Accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America require management to evaluate tax positions taken and recognize a tax liability (or asset) if the organization has taken an uncertain position that more than likely would not be sustained upon examination by the Internal Revenue Service. Management has analyzed the tax positions taken, and has concluded that as of June 30, 2013, there are no uncertain positions taken or expected to be taken that would require recognition of a liability (or asset) or disclosure in the financial statements. The organization is subject to routine audits by taxing jurisdictions; however, there are currently no audits for any tax period in progress. Management believes it is no longer subject to income tax examinations for years prior to 2009.
