Supplemental Information

Complete this part to provide the descriptions required for Part II, lines 3, 5, and 9, Part III, lines 1a and 4, Part IV, lines 1b and 2b, Part V, line 4, Part X, line 2, Part XI, lines 2d and 4b, and Part XII, lines 2d and 4b. Also complete this part to provide any additional information.

Identifier	Return Reference	Explanation
	Part III, Line 4	All gifts are subject to prior review and approval by the board. Gifts received help to further higher education by serving academic, religious, and cultural needs of the students.
	Part IV, Line 2b	University of Mary chartered clubs, student academic associations, and approved faculty and staff associations have established university agency accounts.
Description of Intended Use of Endowment Funds	Part V, Line 4	Permanently Restricted and Board Restricted Endowments - Income from these funds is used to help further the exempt purpose of the university. Loan Fund Endowments - Used to loan students money on a short term basis until financial aid comes through. Typically, the loans are only outstanding for a week or so. Family Fund Endowments - To benefit various non-profit organizations specified by the donor including the university. The endowment beginning of year balances have all been restated by $3,143,623 as per the financial statements to appropriately classify all annuities and trusts as temporarily and permanently restricted assests based on GAAP.
Description of Uncertain Tax Positions Under FIN 48	Part X, Line 2	The University is a nonprofit organization and has been recognized by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) as exempt from federal income taxes under Section 501(c)(3). The University is annually required to file a Return of Organization Exempt from Income Tax (Form 990) with the IRS. In addition, the entities are subject to income tax on net income that is derived from business activities that are unrelated to their exempt purposes. The University has deteremined it is not subject to unrelated business income tax and has not filed an Exempt Organization Business Income Tax Return (Form 990-T) with the IRS. The University believes that it has appropriate support for any tax positions taken affecting its annual filing requirements, and as such, does not have any uncertain tax positions that are material to the financial statements. The entities would recognize future accrued interest and penalties related to unrecognized tax benefits and liabilities in income tax expense if such interest and penalties are incurred. The University is a nonprofit organization that is exempt from federal income tax under Internal Revenue Code Section 501(c)(3). While preparing the Form 990, it was discovered the University would have a Form 990-T filing requirement and as a result is filing a 990-T for the year ending June 30, 2013.

	Part I, Line 1a	The President is required to live in the President's House on campus. The President and Chairman Emeritus (who is also the former president) both receive various minor personal services for convenience such as automotive maintenance or minor housekeeping. A guest house on campus is typically used for housing transitional employees who are new to the university.
	Part I, Line 1b	In 2009, the Board of Trustees voted that it was in the interests and convenience of the University to maintain president's housing on campus and therefore established a residence for the president.

	Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 12c	The board of directors completes a conflict of interest questionnaire each year. No member, trustee, officers or committee member shall be disqualified from holding any position by reason of any interest, but any conflict of interest must be disclosed to the board of trustees at the earliest practical time. A member, trustee, officer or committee member shall be considered to have a conflict of interest if such person (a) has an existing or potential financial or other interest which impairs or might reasonably appear to impair such person's independent unbiased judgment in the discharge of responsibilities to the corporation, or (b) is aware that an immediate family member or any organization in which such person, or an immediate family member, is an officer, director, employee, member, partner, trustee, or controlling stockholder has such existing or potential financial interests. A trustee does not have a conflict of interest in acting on a resolution fixing the compensation of any trustee, officer, employee, or agent of the corporation. No member, trustee or committee member shall vote on any matter under consideration in which such person has a conflict of interest, and shall not be counted as a part of the quorum for the vote on the matter. The minutes of such meeting shall reflect that a disclosure was made and that the person abstained from voting. Any member, trustee or committee member who is uncertain whether there is a conflict of interest in any matter may request the membership, the board or committee to determine whether a conflict of interest exists and resolve the question by majority vote.

	Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 15a	The president's salary is reviewed annually by the independent board. The University uses the Jaffe Salary Survey as well as CUPA Salary Reports (College and University Professional Association) to obtain comparable data from other midwestern universities. The information is documented in a letter noting that the board has accepted and approved the salary change. The top financial official's salary is currently reviewed and approved by the president annually. The same Jaffe Salary Survey and CUPA Salary Report is used for comparable data. The percentage increase is documented in an employment contract, but not in the board meeting minutes.
