Part X - FIN 48 Footnote

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires the Organization to report information regarding its exposure to various tax positions taken by the Organization. The Organization has determined whether any tax positions have met the recognition threshold and have measured the exposure to those tax positions. Management believes that the Organization has adequately addressed all relevant tax positions and that there are

Form 990, Part III, Line 4b - Program Service Accomplishments

The World Savvy Classrooms Program combines professional development for educators with engaging learning opportunities for students to build their global competency.

Through the lens of a global theme, students develop original art and media and other projects to showcase their learning. Additionally, they create a plan to transform their knowledge into action locally, nationally or globally. Educators receive training, customized support, and curriculum resources to integrate global content in their teaching across disciplines. At a culminating event, students present their work at one of two events: The Challenge Competition, in which students perform, exhibit, or present a website or documentary to volunteer judges from the community; or the Media & Arts Exhibition, in which students display work in visual arts, performing arts or digital media. All students have the opportunity to submit a Knowledge-to-Action (K2A) plan that outlines how they can take action locally to address the global issue they explored. Students who write the best submissions are awarded with funding to implement their project.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4c - Program Service Accomplishments

World Savvy provides schools, administrators, districts and organizations with a range of professional development services that equip them with the content knowledge, skills, and dispositions they need to educate for global competency.

Educators anywhere around the country are able to choose from multiple workshops

(two-hour) and institutes (half day, full day and two-day) focusing on a range of global issues and methods for integrating global problem solving and competency-building into their teaching. In addition to our Workshops and Institutes, we are able to create customized projects to fit any need. Global education resources are available to educators and schools across disciplines. Our

Resource Community helps educators integrate global issues into teaching and learning, in the classroom, community or educational environment. In September 2014, World Savvy, in partnership with Teachers College, Columbia University and Asia Society, will launch the Global Competency Certification Program; an 18 month-long online advanced certification and Master's level program that prepares K-12 educators to teach for global competence and equip students to succeed in an interconnected world.

Form 990, Part VI, Line 11b - Form 990 Review Process

Form 990 is prepared by the Organization's independent firm of certified public accountants. The Audit and Finance Committee each review and comment on the 990 before the submission of the document, and concerns or questions are addressed by the Executive Director and the Treasurer.

Form 990, Part VI, Line 12c - Explanation of Monitoring and Enforcement of Conflicts

Reviews of any contracts or potential conflicts are evaluated on a case by case basis.

Form 990, Part VI, Line 15a - Compensation Review & Approval Process - CEO, Top Management Process is led by the Leadership & Nominating Committee and includes an industry scan and comparability data. Recommendations are then approved by the full Board.

Form 990, Part VI, Line 19 - Other Organization Documents Publicly Available

These documents are made available through the Organization's business office upon request.
