Part XV-line 1d-Restrictions and limitations on awards

During the current year the Foundation only funded grants under the "Helping Hand to Hired Program". This program is designed to assist needy individuals toward a fresh start, by providing a financial boost to overcome specific obstacles to remaining employed, or on the road to new or better employment situations. Low-income individuals who are working to become self-sufficient—or struggling to remain self-sufficient—live on extremely tight budgets and have little financial reserves or resources. The only restrictions of the program are a low level of income and not have a conflict of interest with the organization. All recipients are first identified by selected referral agencies which are generally 501C (3) organizations located in Wyoming. These "partner" agencies identify and document worthy individuals. If Hawthorn's Board of Directors approves the application the "partner" agency administers and documents the use of the grants and provides follow up reporting on each grant made.

The foundation also approved but had not paid certain scholarships during the current year under its scholarship program. This fund (the "Scholarship Fund") provides scholarship grants to individuals who reside in the United States (with an emphasis on Wyoming and the rest of the Rocky Mountain Region), to enable such individuals to complete a high school, undergraduate, graduate or technical school education in the field of their choice at any accredited school of their choice in the United States. The selection of scholarship recipients are made by Hawthorn's Board of Directors after the applicant completes a series of applications. The scholarship funds are generally paid directly to the school.
