Part III Supplemental Information

Complete this part to provide the information, explanation, or descriptions required for Part I, lines 1a, 1b, 3, 4a, 4b, 4c, 5a, 5b, 6a, 6b, 7, and 8, and for Part II. Also complete this part for any additional information.

Part I, Line 1a: First-class travel: At times, business class travel is used for long-haul international trips for key employees. This allows key employees to "hit the ground running" to accomplish more in less time-maximizing the key employee's effectiveness while minimizing the time needed to be spent in the foreign country. Multiple destinations can also be visited by the individual on the same trip in less time when compared to the multiple trips and extra days on location required by economy class travel. This is not treated as taxable income.

Travel for Spouse Volunteers. Key employees have spouse volunteers travel with them on occasion in order to assist with business related tasks of the organization. These tasks include, but are not limited to: public relations activities for BTTB; customer service at book or information displays; advocacy for BTTB's program activities in fundraising meetings; other communication and/or prayer support with donors and listeners; and administrative support. If the spouse volunteer travel is deemed business related by leadership, it is not treated as taxable income.

Part I, Line 1b: We have a written policy for spouse volunteer travel

Part III Supplemental Information

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 12c: The officers, trustees and key employees are expected to review the conflict of interest policy and complete the annual review sheet at least annually. In addition, as events arise during the year, officers, trustees and key employees are expected to further disclose conflicts and excuse themselves from decision making related to the conflict.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 15: The CEO's salary and pay increases are set by the Board of Trustees after their annual evaluation of his performance. The salaries of all other top management officials are determined by the CEO and approved by the Board of Trustees. This process was last used for approving salaries for fiscal year 2013.

Comparison data used in the salary approval process is accumulated through survey data from independent sources; review of Form 990 information for similar organizations involved in Bible teaching radio broadcasting; and regional differences in cost of living. The process and decisions are documented in the minutes.
