	The Williams School is an independent K-8 coeducational day school. The chief purpose of the school is to promote learning. The Williams school places demands on its students with the entire staff doing all they can to encourage the child to realize his or her full academic potential. We are pleased that we achieve this purpose so well and still retain a relaxed and friendly atmosphere. We offer a traditional curriculum with innovative instruction. The Williams School provides an accelerated curriculum that strives to meet the developmental needs of individual children. In addition, at all grades we strive to connect curricular ideas by identifying overarching themes and coordinating instruction among different age groups.

Identifier	Return Reference	Explanation
Exemptions	Part X, Line 2	The school is exempt from federal income taxes under section 501(C) (3) of the internal revenue code, except on net income derived from unrelated business activities. Internal revenue code section 513(a) defines an unrelated trade or business of an exempt organization as any trade or business which is not substantially related to the exercise or performance of its exempt purpose. Currently, the school has no obligation for any unrelated business income tax. The school believes it has appropriate support for any tax positions taken, and as such, does not have any uncertain tax positions that are material to the financial statements. The school's federal return of organization exempt from income tax (form 990) for the years prior to June 30, 2010 are generally not subject to examination by the IRS.
Endowment funds	Part V, line 4	As of June 30, 1999, the Board of trustees had designated $450,000 of net assets as a general endowment fund to support the mission of the School. The amount is internally designated and is not donor-restricted. The School has a spending policy of appropriating for 4.5% of the endowment fund's principal balance determined on the preceeding three year's average balance. Endowment assets are invested in a well diversified mix of securities.
