Region Forward is our vision. It's a commitment by COG and its member governments, who together seek to create a more accessible, sustainable, prosperous, and livable National Capital Region. COG's mission is to make Region Forward happen by being a discussion forum, expert resource, issue advocate, and catalyst for action.

If "Yes," describe these changes on Schedule O

The Metropolitan Washington Council of Governments (COG) is the regional organization of the Washington area's major local governments and their governing officials. The Washington Metropolitan area is comprised of the District of Columbia, the Washington, D.C. suburbs in Maryland and northern Virginia. COG provides a focus for action on issues of regional concern such as comprehensive transportation planning, air and water quality management, environmental monitoring, tracking economic development and population growth and their effects on the region, coordinating public safety programs, and promoting child care and housing for the region. COG is supported by financial contributions from its participating member governments, grants and contracts.

	Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 11	The Form 990 is prepared after the audit is completed and the Form 990 is distributed to the Senior Staff and to all of the members of the Audit Committee for review. The Form 990 and the results of the Audit are reviewed by the Audit Committee and are presented to the Board during the monthly Board Meeting. Revisions are communicated to the CFO before the Form 990 is filed.
	Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 12c	Presently, COG does not require that the officers, board members and key employees disclose their conflicts of interest and those of their family members on an annual basis. The process of disclosure is performed when the individual initially joins COG or its Board through the distribution and review of the Organization's policies and procedures. These guidelines require the individual to report matters of conflict before or as they occur. All employees are covered under the policy, and all levels of employees are considered under the policies. Conflicts at all levels of staff are reviewed by Human Resources. COG's conflict of interest includes outside employment which conflicts with COG, participation in political activities, receipt of gifts or gratuities, and special restrictions for employees who work with elected officials.
	Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 15	Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Lines 15. The compensation for persons under these positions was established through a benchmark salary survey conducted by the Office of Human Resources Management and the Management Advisory Group. The comparability data include COG-member jurisdictions, nonprofit organizations of similar size and regional councils. Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Lines 15a. COG operates like a government entity where the compensation of its employees is determined by a market study in combination with our member jurisdictions compensation structure to determine COG's pay rates, compensation, and benefits. In addition to an established pay ranges based on COG's annual compensation study, the Executive Director's salary was discussed by the Employee Benefits and Review Committee. Final recommendation of hiring salary was approved by the COG Board of Directors in its November 2012 Board meeting. Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Lines 15b. Salary ranges for all positions including key and officers positions are established based on yearly compensation survey conducted independently by the Management Advisory Group. Final recommendations are made by the Office of Human Resources Management for approval by the CFO and the Executive Director. Salary ranges are approved before July 1st of each year. In addition key and officers' positions are eligible for additional compensation through the performance evaluations conducted in July of each year. Based on performance these positions are eligible to receive merit raises. This performance evaluation for these positions involves approval by the HR Director and the Executive Director.
	Form 990, Part VI, Section C, line 19	The Metropolitan Washington Council of Governments, Inc. makes its governing documents, conflict of interest policy, and financial statements available to the public upon request.
Other Fees	Form 990, Part IX, line 11g	Consultant Program service expenses 21,205,930. Management and general expenses 610,870. Fundraising expenses 0. Total expenses 21,816,800.
