Part VI, Question 11B	990 REVIEW PROCESS
Part VI, Question 12c	Describe how conflict of interest policy is monitored & enforced	Any Christian &amp; Missionary Alliance Foundation (CMAF) board member or leadership staff in a position to make decisions with regard to CMAF's resources and stands to benefit from a decision, must fully disclose at first knowledge that a conflict of interest exists. Disclosures shall be in writing and directed to the chair of the board and/or the President. Information disclosed shall be held in confidence except where, in the judgment of these persons, the best interest of the organization requires further disclosure. All board members and leadership staff are requested to list on this form those substantive relationships that he or she maintains (or members of their family maintain) with organizations that do business with CMAF or otherwise could be construed to potentially affect his or her unbiased, decision-making authority or responsibility. In the event there is uncertainty as to the appropriateness of listing a particular relationship, the chair of the board of directors and/or president should be consulted. They in turn may elect to consult legal counsel, the executive committee, or the board of directors in executive session. A board member or leadership staff who has declared or has been found to have a conflict-of-interest in any proposed transaction or other matter will not participate in any discussion or debate regarding that transaction. The board of directors may request clarifying information from that person or persons involved but he or she may not vote on the matter in question and may not present at the time of the vote. With respect to restraint on participation, the president or the chair shall take action as is necessary to assure that the transaction is completed in the best interest of CMAF without the substantive involvement of the person who has the possible conflict of interest.
Part VI, Question 15a	Describe process for determining compensation	The review of executive compensation was conducted by Barbara Manny of Benefits and Compensation Resources, LLC. The actual review for Peter Dys, President was started in late 2006 with board approval occurring in May, 2007.
Part VI, Question 15b	Describe process for determining compensation	The review of other officer and key employee compensation was conducted by Barbara Manny of Benefits and Compensation Resources, LLC for the following individuals: Tim Lochridge, CFO and Steven Minnear, Vice-President of Health Care Services. This review was started in late 2006 and compensation was approved by the board in May, 2007.
Part VI, Question 19	Describe how documents are made available to the public	All governing documents, conflict of interest policy, and financial statements are available to the public upon request.
Part I, Question 6	Volunteers	Volunteerism: One clear indicator of a true non-profit is the willingness engendered among individuals to provide their time and personal talent to assist and support the organization through volunteerism. At Shell Point, 979 (almost half) of the entire population of 2,200 residents are registered volunteers in the community and many others also volunteer outside Shell Point with organizations that are associated with the community. The total number of documented volunteer hours in the past 20 years has been well over two million hours of volunteer service. Shell Point's volunteer program is such an important part of resident life in the community that the organization provides a department with two dedicated staff to oversee the program. There are more than 50 organized volunteer groups at Shell Point providing myriad services including the Pavilion Auxiliary, which has over 450 volunteers working within the facility's skilled nursing center to enhance the quality of life for residents living there. Other volunteer programs include a full-service library which is operated completely by resident volunteers, various service groups such as Adopt-A-Road, Hugie Hearts, Support Groups, Shell Point Ambassadors, and more. These programs not only enhance the Shell Point lifestyle, they also provide a sense of meaning and purpose in the personal lives of the individuals who are volunteering.
Part VI, Section A, Questions 6, 7a & 7b	Member Information	Line 6: The corporation has only one class of members. The members of the corporation are the members of the Board of Directors of The Christian &amp; Missionary Alliance. Line 7a: The corporation's Board of Directors (governing body) is elected by the members of the corporation. Line 7b: Certain decisions of the governing body (the incurrence of debt, for example) are subject to approval by the members of the corporation.
