Through a contract with the California Public Utilities Commission (CPUC), CCAF provided specialized telecommunications equipment to over 26,000 new deaf and disabled consumers through oversight of a centralized call center, which received over 155,000 calls annually. CCAF also provided specialized equipment to over 24,200 consumers in their homes or in nine Service Centers throughout California. Through its contract with the CPUC, CCAF also managed contracts with the California Relay Services vendors, who relayed 3,062,000 calls to and from deaf, hard of hearing, and speech disabled users.

4b (Code: ) (Expenses $ 1,087,840 including grants of $ 1,051,614 ) (Revenue $ 0 )
CCAF continued its program of giving grants to non-profit organizations for furthering CCAF's mission. CCAF's Board of Directors fully approved the granting of cash to 501(c)(3) organizations with projects in California to improve access to communications for people with disabilities and seniors. CCAF received applications from 65 non-profit organizations in California who developed projects to improve access to communications for under-served groups through providing technology and services. During this fiscal year, CCAF's Board of Directors reviewed the applications and ultimately funded 21 organizations to implement their projects. The funded organizations had all set goals at the beginning of their projects to serve a specific number of consumers, and/or provide a specific number of assistive technology devices to consumers depending on what each of their projects required. Also, CCAF hosted a meeting for the Grantees to share projects and achievements with each other, which served as a further information resource. CCAF looks forward to offer more grants, and will add to this pool of information and resources throughout the state to serve people with communication needs.

Generally Accepted Accounting Principles (GAAP) provides accounting and disclosure guidance about positions taken by an organization in its tax returns that might be uncertain. Management has considered its tax positions and believes that all of the positions taken by CCAF in its federal and state exempt organization tax returns are more likely than not to be sustained upon examination. CCAF's returns are subject to examination by federal and state taxing authorities, generally for three or four years, respectively, after they are filed.

Part I Question #2 - Monitoring the use of grant funds. Per the grant requirements, the Grantee submits a project semi-annual report, a final report and a self-evaluation of its performance and its record keeping. The funded organizations provided reports and examples documenting the extent to which they achieve their goals.

Grants are paid in 3 installments. The first installment, 50% of the grant, is paid after receiving the signed Grant Agreement, which specifies all terms and conditions regarding project performance and future payments. The second installment, 35% of the grant, is paid after receiving, reviewing and approving a required 6 month report on how the project is progressing with the use of the funding. The third and final installment, 15% of the grant, is paid after receiving a final detailed report describing the results, a self-evaluation of the grantee's performance, a budget-to-actual expense accounting, and complete review. Additionally, CCAF invites grantees to attend an in-person presentation to the Board of Directors and all other grantees. CCAF maintains contact with the grantees throughout the funding period through regular emails, phone calls, and on occasion, on-site visits to the grantees and their projects. The content collected is very informative, and is maintained by CCAF.
