SchE_P01_S00_L03	Schedule E, Part I, Line 3	All responses to public inquiry concerning admissions and financial aid requirements are met with literature, such as catalogues, brochures and applications that have the organization's non-discriminatory policy clearly stated. Advertisements for the organization typically are for course offerings of the current semester. A statement of non-discriminatory policy is stated in each advertisement.
SchE_P01_S00_L06	Schedule E, Part I, Line 6	The university administers various student financial aid programs including SEOG, College Work Study and National Direct Student Loans. The university is also involved in various educational programs for which funds are received from both State and Federal agencies. In the past, the university had received financial aid funding from the Law Enforcement Assisting Agency (LEAA) for students enrolled in the Criminal Justice program. Certain years of the program have been reviewed by the LEAA and the agency claims the university did not comply with the guidelines and demanded a refund of certain amounts. A settlement was reached with the Department of Justice. The university was suspended from receiving further funds from the LEAA. This suspension was rescinded in 1975.

SchJ_P01_S00_L01a	Schedule J, Part I, Line 1a	Dr. George Martin, President, received a housing allowance and reimbursement for financial planning services per employment contract. Both the housing allowance and financial planning services are taxable.
SchJ_P01_S00_L04	Schedule J, Part I, Line 4	George E. Martin: The University established a non-qualified deferred compensation plan under IRS Code Section 457F for the purpose of providing a retirement benefit for the university president, George E. Martin. Under the terms of the plan, the university agreed to establish a non-vested retirement account in a financial institution of the university's selection in the name of the university on behalf of the president, make an annual contribution to the retirement account during the term of the plan, invest the account balance and distribute the account balance to the president in accordance with the occurrence of specific events. The president has no rights to or interest in the retirement account prior to the date the account becomes payable to the president under the terms and conditions set for in the plan. The president's right to the retirement benefits is non-vested and forfeitable prior to the payment date. The retirement account is the property of the university at all times prior to the payment date. The university accrued $45,480 and paid $81,000 into the plan in the current reporting period. The president will become 100 percent vested in and entitled to payment of the retirement account at his normal retirement date, upon termination for disability or death, other than cause and voluntary cause for good reason as defined. The president forfeits all interest in the retirement account in the event of termination for cause or voluntary termination for other than good reason as defined.
SchJ_P02_S00_L00	Schedule J, Part II	George E. Martin: Included in Column B (III) is a taxable housing allowance of $45,000, taxable automobile allowance of $3,648, taxable long-term disability insurance of $917, taxable financial planning services of $4,000 and taxable reimbursements of $12,000. The payments of the taxable reimbursements, automobile allowance, financial planning services, long-term disability insurance and housing allowance are made pursuant to the terms of the contract with President Martin and the university.

F990_P06_S0B_L12c	Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 12c	St Edward's University's Conflict of Interest Policy is applicable to all members of the university's Board of Trustees and Officers. A conflict is deemed to exist in the event that a Trustee, Officer or family member of either is affiliated with an organization that may transact business with the university. The policy defines "Trustee", "Officer", "family members" and "affiliation". Disclosure of any/all of these types of relationships or the appearance of such relationships is required to be made annually by September or as soon as a potential conflict arises. These disclosures are made in writing on the St Edward's Conflict of Interest form and submitted to the Assistant to the President for Institutional Relations for trustees and to the Assistant to the President for Strategic Planning for university officers. After collecting the Conflict of Interest forms, the assistants provide the President and Chair of the Board with a report stating whether or not there are any conflicts. If any potential conflicts are disclosed, the appropriate assistant is to notify university's legal counsel. Counsel will in turn determine if an actual conflict exists. If a conflict is determined to exist with a trustee the matter is reported to the university President and Board Chair. If a conflict is determined to exist with a university officer, the matter is reported to the university President. In either case, the individual(s) receiving the report must take all appropriate action.
