V	4	The endowment funds shown are considered permanently restricted. The College does not intend to use the funds.
X	2	Accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America require the College's management to evaluate tax positions taken by the College and to recognize a tax liability or asset if the College has taken an uncertain tax position that will more-likely-than-not be sustained upon examination by taxing authorities. Management has analyzed the tax positions taken by the College and believes that there are no such positions as of June 30, 2013. Accordingly, no liability has been accrued.

Part I	6a	The College offers scholarships and student financial aid to assist with meeting the students financial obligations. The Financial Aid Office has the necessary policies and procedures to ensure that the College adheres to and complies with federal regulations regarding eligibility for student financial aid. Requirements for receiving scholarships depend on other factors, such as grade point average, family income, or athletic talents.
Part I	6b	In May 1996, Texas College lost its accreditation with the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools, which resulted in the revocation of its federal financial aid programs. The College has since regained its accreditation and now receives federal financial assistance.
