Care Team Ministry - Mission - "A neighbor's independence depends on you - no one should feel alone." The program was started January 2003 on funding from the Robert Wood Johnson Foundation as a national initiative with the intent that these programs after startup would become self-sufficient. Many across the country did not survive because of a lack of funding. Ours has survived because it was felt that CTM provides an important service to the community. Funding comes from donations and Immanuel Lutheran Communities. There are no program services revenue generated. The program is a coalition of church and support service agencies collaborating with the healthcare community. Volunteer teams meet short-term, non-medical needs of seniors who desire to remain in their homes, thus enhancing quality of life. Non-medical needs may include transportation to doctor appointments, grocery shopping, minor household chores, phone calls, general outings and companionship. Immanuel Lutheran Communities provides supervision, training and support for the congregational teams. The Care Team Ministry program has about 200 volunteers and serves about 200 individuals annually.

SchD_P05_S00_L04	Schedule D, Part V, Line 4	In 1988, Immanuel Lutheran received $282,500 from the estate of Olga Helevna Stromset. Miss Stromset requested that income received on the principle invested be used for education and training of staff employed at Immanuel. In keeping with her wishes, ILC developed the following guidelines for the use of these funds: be an employee of Immanuel Lutheran, have an acceptable work record as documented by their supervisor, have worked for six months with a minimum of 720 hours in one year, be accepted for study in an accredited program, provide documentation of successful completion of course work to continue funding. Preference is given to those applicants whose degree or goal will allow them to fill a position at Immanuel Lutheran for which there is an anticipated shortage or need. The remaining $205,339 of our endowment funds was given to Immanuel in the form of gift annuities. The income from these monies is used for the care of our residents.
