| Grantmaker's Description of How Grants are Used |                  | Northwest Nazarene University monitors the use of its grant funds as required by the individual grant programs and donor criteria established at the time of the original donation. These are monitored through the annual auditing process as well as through Federal and State reporting requirements. ISIR/FAFSA and high school transcripts are maintained in the student's file for a period of 7 years after the student withdraws or finishes their programs that show eligibility for grants. Grant amounts would show on the award letter in the file as well as on the individual's financial aid record in the database. |

They receive an electronic copy of the return and all attachments prior to the meeting and then discuss any questions they have at the meeting. When all questions have been answered to their satisfaction, all other trustees receive an electronic copy of the return before it is electronically filed with the IRS. If for some reason, it is not available to be approved before the March meeting, the members of the audit committee direct any questions they have to the Controller and/or CFO individually via email or telephone. The same procedure is then followed before the return is filed.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |
| Form 990, Part VI, Line 1a  | Form 990, Part VI, Line 1a Explanation of Delegated Broad Authority to Committee                    | The full board of trustees comes together twice each year, in October and March. For matters that come up in between these two meetings, the board has established an executive committee to act on its behalf. The executive committee consists of the Chairperson, the Vice-Chairperson, the Secretary of the board, and five other persons elected from among the members of the Board of Trustees. Representation includes four lay representatives and four ministerial representatives, at least one district superintendent, and at least one pastor. The President of the University is a non-voting, ex-officio member of the Executive Committee. The Executive Committee has authority to act for the Corporation when the Board of Trustees is not in session. In addition, the Executive Committee oversees the work of board committees and serves as the Personnel Committee of the Board of Trustees. Notwithstanding the above, the following matters are reserved for the Board of Trustees unless delegated to the Executive Committee: presidential selection and termination, changes in institution, mission and purpose, changes to the Articles of Incorporation and/or Bylaws, incurring corporate indebtedness, sale of University real property, adoption of the annual budget, conferral of degrees, and other powers expressly reserved to the Board of Trustees. The Executive Committee regularly reports its actions to the Board of Trustees. |
