	Part I, Line 1a	Occasionally the President's spouse (also a University employee) accompanies him to conferences and other events where her presence is requested and there is a valid business purpose. This is treated as a business expense and not included in taxable compensation. Health and social club dues are paid on behalf of the Board Chair and are reported as taxable compensation to him.
	Part I, Line 3	The University participates in annual salary studies of various higher education associations and the independent board has access to these studies when determining compensation for officers and key employees. The President is serving under a 5-year contract entered into in 2011 that sets compensation for all five years. The independent board reviewed salary studies and comparable compensation and benefits prior to entering into the 2011 contract.
	Part I, Line 5	Incentive pay is calculated annually based upon achievement of revenue goals.
	Part I, Line 6	Incentive pay is calculated quarterly based upon net income actual vs. budget.
