Part VI, Section B, Line 11b - A draft copy of the 990 is reviewed by a board member who is considered to be a financial expert. Copies are available for other board members to review prior to filing.

Part VI, Section B, Line 12c - All trustees and employees are required to disclose potential conflicts of interest at the time they are considered for trusteeship or employment and at any time a potential conflict arises. In addition, each trustee and each employee is required to annually submit a conflict of interest statement disclosing any possible conflicts of interest.

Section VI, Section B, Line 15 - The Executive Committee of the Board of Trustees annually reviews available salary data regarding compensation of chief executives at similar nonprofit organizations. The committee then recommends a salary level for review and approval by the full board. All other positions are paid based on a salary matrix approved by the board. Management periodically recommends adjustments to the matrix reflecting cost of living and other factors. All salaried employees, including the chief executive, are provided a single fringe benefit package.

Part VI, Section C, Line 19 - The organization does not have a policy of publicizing its governing documents, conflict of interest policy, and financial statements, although a financial summary is provided in the annual report which is sent to our stakeholders. Requests for this information are evaluated and provided on a case by case basis.
