Part X	Part X FIN48 Footnote	The United Way is exempt from income taxes under Section 501 (c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. Exemptions from the State of Oregon corporation excise tax are provided by Oregon Revised Statutes 317.080. Charity Build 2008, LLC is a single member LLC, and therefore, is a disregarded entity for income tax purposes, and its activity is included with that of the United Way. In any year in which the United Way has gross receipts from unrelated business activities of $1,000 or more, it must file form 990-T with the Internal Revenue Service and pay tax on such income, less any related deductions. There was no such income in the years ending June 30, 2013 or 2012. The United Way follows accounting standards generally accepted in the United States of America related to the recognition of uncertain tax positions. These standards provide detailed guidance for financial statement recognition, measurement, and disclosure of uncertain tax positions. It requires an entity to recognize the financial statement impact of a tax position when it is more than likely than not that the position would not be sustained if examined by a taxing authority. Management has determined that the United Way had no uncertain tax positions as of June 30, 2013 and 2012. The United Way files information and income tax returns in the United States, state and local jurisdictions. With few exceptions, the United Way is no longer subject to US Federal, state or local tax examination by tax authorities for years before 2010.
