Schedule 2

Form 990, Part III - What is the Organization's exempt purpose?

Portland OIC is part of an international network of community based centers which provide education, training and job placement services to disconnected people. Portland OIC's focus is to serve youth ages 13-25 through Rosemary Anderson High School (RAHS) which is accredited by the Northwest Association of Accredited Schools; and through employment training and leadership programs.

Program Services

Education

Under this program, Portland OIC provides the following services :

Rosemary Anderson High School which is a private alternative high school offering accredited educational opportunities for students not succeeding in a traditional school environment.

After School Program which is an after-school program providing tutoring, academic support and enrichment classes for students.

Transitions which provides post graduation services; college support; job search; crisis intervention; and family engagement.

During the year ended June 30, 2013, 700 students participated in the various education programs.

Employment & Training

Under this program, Portland OIC provides the following services:

Youth Employment Empowerment Project (YEPP) which provides case management, employment training, alcohol and drug education, and job referrals for gang-impacted youth ages 16-21.

Adaptive Adventure Team (AAT) which is a year-round program providing students with career exploration, work experience activities, and academic support.

Leadership Academy which is a five-day residential camping experience during the summer. Camp activities are designed to help students face their fears and learn how to resolve conflicts using productive strategies. Follow-up is provided throughout the academic year.

SummerWorks which is a paid internship program for youth ages 16 - 24. Portland OIC provides payment to the participants.

SummerWorks which is a paid internship program for youth ages 16 - 24. Portland OIC provides payment to the participants.

Career Opportunities for Youth (COFY) provides youth with training case management, career exploration, academic planning and work experience.

Social Enterprise Venture in which POIC, in partnership with Bridgetown Coffee and New Seasons Market, operates a coffee kiosk at the corner of N. Interstate and Rosa Parks Way on the New Seasons Market lot. Youth trained in the COFY program's Barista Training may serve an internship in the kiosk before job placement. Included in the Social Enterprise Venture is a retail coffee service for businesses and offices.

During the year ended June 30, 2013, 450 people participated in the various employment and training programs.

Line 4c - Family Outreach

Under this program, all families are connected to Portland OIC and have opportunities to be involved in their child's education through volunteering, family involvement activities, teacher conferences, and family resource nights. The Family Outreach program connects the Student, Family, and Community as systems that surround the student. This is done by:

- a. Working with teachers to implement classroom-based approaches to assist students in learning.
- b. Providing opportunities for family involvement.
- c. Maintaining contact with families through telephone calls, news letters, conferences, and activities.
- d. Outreaching to the community for involvement and support.

During the year ended June 30, 2013, 200 people participated in the family outreach program.
