Explanation: There was a delay in obtaining banking information, causing a further delay in updating the bookkeeping, in order to prepare a complete and accurate return. I, the tax practitioner, was recovering from oral surgery and unfortunately neglected to file an extension before the due date. The holidays caused additional delay as all board officers were out of town and unable to sign the return. We apologize for the delay in filing and respectfully request that you consider the aforementioned circumstances. We will assure that our organization will file on time in the future.
