Check if Schedule O contains a response to any question in this Part III

1

Briefly describe the organization’s mission

The Library Foundation mobilizes financial support and raises public awareness to enhance Multnomah County Library's leadership, innovation and reach, helping the library address emerging community needs, and sustain a strong library system

2

Did the organization undertake any significant program services during the year which were not listed on the prior Form 990 or 990-EZ?

Yes

No

If “Yes,” describe these new services on Schedule O

3

Did the organization cease conducting, or make significant changes in how it conducts, any program services?

Yes

No

If “Yes,” describe these changes on Schedule O

4

Describe the organization’s program service accomplishments for each of its three largest program services, as measured by expenses Section 501(c)(3) and 501(c)(4) organizations are required to report the amount of grants and allocations to others, the total expenses, and revenue, if any, for each program service reported

4a

(Code) (Expenses $ 325,520 including grants of $ 325,520) (Revenue $)

School-age literacy programs reach into all 8 school districts and out into the community, engaging more than 130,000 children in activities that cement reading skills and academic success Three primary investments Books 2 U brings inspiring "booktalkers" and take-home books to over 26,000 students in low performing public schools Summer Reading reached more than 100,000 children, including 93% of elementary school students in the county Everybody Reads reached 3,200 students by bringing books, reading curriculum and discussion groups to 26 high schools and youth organizations, transforming how students experience reading, writing and the significance of the written word

4b

(Code) (Expenses $ 671,487 including grants of $ 671,487) (Revenue $)

Early literacy programs reach babies and young children, especially those vulnerable to low literacy, during a crucial window for early brain development Targeting families with limited resources and reading ability, these programs help parents by encouraging them to become the first, best, and most permanent teachers of their children Last year, 36,000 young children and parents benefitted from Raising A Reader, a program that helps them read together at home throughout the year More than 400 caregivers, educators and home health providers were able to rely on the program to enhance their work with struggling families The New Parent Program reached every first-time parent in the county, encouraging parents to read with newborns and engage with the library

4c

(Code) (Expenses $ 103,638 including grants of $ 103,638) (Revenue $)

An array of financial literacy programs, workshops and events at library branches and outreach centers support those impacted most by the tough economic climate Seniors who are isolated and at risk for fraud, as well as young families who are struggling, are primary targets of the library’s financial literacy efforts Children and adults were also able to access free arts, cultural, and instructional programs at branches across the system Last year, more than 130,000 adults and families were reached with these programs

(Code) (Expenses $ 745,565 including grants of $ 99,749) (Revenue $)

Other program services include staff time and program services for library programs, communications and activities ($415,055), and other library funding, including the expansion of library collections, acquisition of rare books and historic materials, library staff development, and the library’s mobile app ($99,749) Advocacy efforts for strong public support for the library are also included in this category ($228,262)
