Form 990, Part III, Line 4a - Program Service Accomplishments

Pacific Education Foundation ("PEF"), through its strategic partnerships such as Marin Educational Foundation, offers several options to its funds applicants and on-going recipients. Our goal is to provide a meaningful level of financial support and practical assistance throughout your educational-needs life cycle.

Special Immediate Needs: Student support scenarios include helping students who have demonstrated a real commitment to completing their education, who may find themselves in immediate financial need. These noisy and demanding distractions may tragically work to scuttle their dreams of completing their chosen skills-based career training.
It is when the only avenue that seems viable is to shelve their education goals and re-focus on the demands of financial survival, that PEF can make the greatest person-to-person impact.

Two to Three Year Sustained Support: PEF focuses on sustained support for dedicated students whose career paths have become jeopardized by unforeseen and insurmountable long-term financial needs. In these cases, special personal circumstances may be holding back the prospective recipient preventing them from reaching their dreams of completing their chosen skills-based training. Achieving educational goals through graduation would facilitate life-changing empowerment, thereby breaking the cycle of lost opportunity. Through its strategic partnerships such as Marin Educational Foundation, PEF will provide several levels of support to selected students including practical and financial, to bridge these needs, enabling full realization of career education goals.

Critical "Life Demands" Support: "Over-committed" applicants often find themselves may be juggling multiple concurrent responsibilities. A practical level of financial assistance would solve a particular demanding "life" need, allowing the student to re-focus back to completing their education. These demands may include such categories as working a steady job (or jobs), attending to the practical needs of their young children, and/or providing practical care for an aging parent. Every applicant's situation is as unique as the student themselves - competing with their unique educational goals and dreams. Pacific Education Foundation is committed to providing financial relief to selected students with such special "life demands", through its strategic partnerships such as Marin Educational Foundation.
