Form 990, Part III, Line 4a - Program Service Accomplishments

CORE Program (Community, Opportunity, Reintegration, Empowerment)

The primary component of our CORE Program is to help our clients identify and access their strengths and resources both within themselves and within our community. This starts with a mutual desire, a mutual connection and an inherent sense of trust. Our prospective clients are invited to help themselves to a hot meal and to sit down together around a dinner table with CORE Program clients who are in various stages of their own journeys. Once an individual demonstrates a commitment to our program and a mutually-agreed upon plan, he or she is invited to utilize the services of our resource center, located at 720 Columbus Avenue in San Francisco's North Beach neighborhood, Monday through Friday between the hours of 9:30 a.m. and 12:00 p.m.

Clients tell us their stories and share their unique and very specific circumstances.

We then specialize in tailoring a very different path for each of our very different clients depending on their individual journey towards self-sufficiency. In the beginning, critical needs are addressed such as immediate health concerns or basic human needs such as food and clothing. Our clients each have access to bathroom facilities, hygiene products, phones, computer, and if necessary, a mailing address at our center. We strive to help each client reach individualized benchmarks that are achievable for him or her on the journey towards stability. Depending on the individual, clients can receive assistance with benefits they are entitled, help from medical and financial organizations, access to stabilization housing when appropriate; and assistance with transportation to and from appointments. Clients are always treated in an atmosphere that promotes trust, guarantees integrity, and ensures respect. We believe that these three values lay the groundwork for all future progress.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4b - Program Service Accomplishments

Housing Stabilization Program

Emergency Interim Housing Program

Clients who are chronically or recently homeless and who are also actively enrolled in the SEEDS Program may qualify to receive emergency interim (transitional) housing funds.

These funds are paid directly to the qualified temporary housing providers with the goal of moving clients from the streets into housing while North Beach Citizens works with them to qualify for permanent supportive housing.

Emergency Rental Housing Program

Clients who are in permanent supportive housing and who are actively enrolled in or graduates of the SEEDS Program may qualify to receive emergency rental assistance if they face a funding crisis that requires intervention to stave off eviction.

Street Beautification Program

This is an incentive-based volunteer program for North Beach Citizens' homeless and low-income clients to beautify and maintain the under-served area of North Beach.

The volunteer work program consists of clients cleaning and undertaking beautification projects in Washington Square Park and the streets of North Beach.

Their cleaning activity assists with the heavily trafficked tourists areas to ensure cleanliness in the neighborhood. The inclusion of homeless and low-income residents promotes community by providing the participants with an opportunity to be a part of a neighborhood improvement effort. The project places participants in a public space, performing a public service that enables them to comfortably engage and be engaged by their fellow neighbors. The participation of homeless and low-income people in the project simultaneously challenges the myth of homeless and low-income people not wanting to work and instills a sense of pride in the individuals who participate.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4d - Other Program Services DescriptionCommunity Food Pantry

In collaboration with the San Francisco Food Bank, our Community Food Pantry was established in October 2010. This partnership developed because both organizations were interested in opening a food pantry in North Beach to address the needs of formerly homeless, low-income, senior, and disabled residents living in single room occupancies (SROs). The goals of the Community Food Pantry are to stave off eviction for individuals by decreasing the amount of money needed for food and increasing the amount of money available for rent.

During the 2013 fiscal year, the Community Food Pantry distributed a total of 4,096 bags, or 85,617 pounds, of food to over 150 low-income individuals residing in single-room occupancy residences within San Francisco's North Beach and surrounding neighborhoods.
