Early Education: Our early education programs, which include a California State Preschool and an Early Head Start, provide very-low-income parents with high-quality early education services for approximately 400 children (ages 0 to 5) each day at our state-of-the-art early education center, through our network of licensed family childcare homes throughout the community, as well as in individual family homes. The Center recruits highly-qualified teachers, child development specialists, and administrators and ensures very low staff-to-child ratios in our classrooms. The Center's investment in professional development training and activities provides at-risk children with the rich, stimulating environment they need to succeed in school and beyond. Our programs empower parents to advocate for their

Child Welfare: The Center has five service contracts with the Los Angeles County Department of Children and Family Services (DCFS) to provide Family Preservation, Family Unity Network, Prevention Initiative Demonstration Project, and Foster Care and Adoption services to over 100 families each month. These child welfare and family support programs protect at-risk children and strengthen families, through in-home and on-site assessments, counseling, and case management. Our highly-trained staff, many of who have master degrees, work with high-risk families to address issues such as violence, substance abuse, and depression. When a child's needs cannot be met by the biological family, we recruit, train, and support foster parents who provide safe, nurturing homes. In cases when reunification is not in the child's best

The Center links families to many additional services thanks to numerous community partnerships with local universities and other service providers (UCLA, Cal State Northridge, Teach for America, etc.).
