A major continuing objective of Community Advance is to provide programs that significantly advance the life-skills of students. A mentoring program for Taft Middle School students (6th-8th grade) ("The Club") has been offered by Community Advance beginning in January 2012. A majority attending this school are Hispanic or Black students, with a significant proportion underperforming in mathematics and reading, from single-parent families, have a high dropout rate, and essentially all are eligible for free or reduced priced lunches. The weekly after-school "Club" sessions include a life skills training topic (presented by invited community leaders), a Biblical focus topic to encourage character and moral values development, and participation in one of several structured elective activities. Student interaction with adult leadership in each of these activities is encouraged by staff and volunteer adult mentors. Planned occasions to interact with the parent(s)/guardian(s) of the students is a priority objective. The enrollment goal of 75 students was exceeded in the fall semester session. A six-week summer session was offered with half-day programs five days per week. A total of 100 students enrolled. The Club curriculum has been expanded to span the three years of middle school, to encourage students to continue their participation in this program for additional years.

Plans have been completed for new facilities that will accommodate a Community Advance Center.
