Part III

Statement of Program Service Accomplishments

Check if Schedule O contains a response to any question in this Part III

1

Briefly describe the organization's mission

Loyola University New Orleans, a Jesuit and Catholic institution of higher education, welcomes students of diverse backgrounds and prepares them to lead meaningful lives with and for others, to pursue truth, wisdom, and virtue, and to work for a more just world. Inspired by Ignatius of Loyola's vision of finding God in all things, the university is grounded in the liberal arts and sciences, while also offering opportunities for professional studies in undergraduate and selected graduate programs. Through teaching, research, creative activities, and service, the faculty, in cooperation with the staff, strives to educate the whole student and to benefit the larger community.

F990_P06_S0B_L15	Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 15	President's Compensation - The Executive Committee of the Board of Trustees chaired by the Board Chairperson deliberates to determine the President's compensation. Each member of the compensation-setting body is a disinterested party. Jesuit members of the Executive Committee recuse themselves from the salary deliberations. Salary data obtained from the Association of Colleges and University Personnel Administrators, the Association of Jesuit Colleges and Universities and an executive search firm database is used to determine compensation comparability. The decision of the compensation-setting body including terms of the compensation, the date approved, members of the compensation-setting body present during the discussion of the compensation and voting members, comparability data relied on and the source of the data and an affirmation that all members were free of any conflict of interest is documented and retained by the Secretary of the Board of Trustees. Key Employee Compensation Upon Hiring - The university President or Provost (depending on the organizational status of the key employee) makes a salary determination with the party involved. The President or Provost uses salary data obtained from the Association of Colleges and University Personnel Administrators, the Association of Jesuit Colleges and Universities and an executive search firm database to determine compensation comparability. On a regular basis the Executive Committee of the Board of Trustees reviews the compensation of key employees. Compensation adjustments - All compensation adjustments such as merit increases are documented in the Performance Evaluation and reviewed for reasonableness and industry comparability via budget analysis.
