Identifier	Return Reference	Explanation
	Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 11	The Form 990 was prepared by an independent CPA firm, reviewed by management, and then emailed to the board members for their review before it was filed with the IRS
	Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 12c	The Director of Finance reviews the policy annually for industry best practices compliance and then management discusses. The policy is signed annually at the September board meeting by officers, directors, and key employees
	Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 15	Form 990 Part VI, Section B, Lines 15a & 15b The executive director of MYCM receives his compensation through the Young Life organization. Each year, the Young Life board of directors reviews the executive director's compensation package (including benefits). The Young Life board relies on the use of comparability data in making their decision, and final approval is subject to a board vote. For the 2013 fiscal year, a real time compensation service computer program was used to run comparability data on individuals holding similar positions within the region. This data was used as the basis for determining the amount of compensation for the year. During the fiscal year 2013 process, a representative of the MCYM board met with and discussed compensation arrangements with a human resources executive, and representatives of both Young Life and Youth For Christ in order to gather comparability data. Although the executive director is clearly an employee of Young Life with compensation ultimately set and paid by Young Life, Young Life consults with the board of MCYM on his compensation and shares responsibility with MCYM for determining appropriate compensation. In fiscal year 2013, the MCYM board reviewed comparability data and voted to approve the compensation paid to the executive director by Young Life.
	Form 990, Part VI, Section C, line 19	These documents are available upon request
Explanation of donated services & facilities	Form 990, Page 10, Part IX	The IRS Form 990 instructions specifically state that donated services and facilities should be omitted from Form 990 reporting even though these amounts are required to be reported by generally accepted accounting principles. Thus, the value of these contributions are properly included in the audited financial statements of Military Community Youth Ministries in revenues and program expenses. Military Community Youth Ministries would prefer to include the value of donated services and facilities in the organization's Form 990. We believe this shows the reader a more complete and accurate picture of the financial activities of the organization for the year. Nevertheless, because of the IRS' specific requirements, contributions of donated services and facilities have not been reported as contribution revenue on Form 990, Part VIII, Line 1c. Correspondingly, the associated program expenses have not been reported in Form 990, Part IX, Column B. (You will find the reconciliation of the audited financial statements to Form 990 on Schedule D, Parts XII and XIII, where these differences are enumerated.) If the amounts were included on Form 990, Program Service expenses (Form 990, Part IX, Column B) would increase by $3,577,460. In addition, revenues (Part VIII, Line 1c) would increase by the $3,856,061. More important to readers of Form 990, the functional expense percentages (as reported in the audited financial statements) should be as follows: PROGRAM SERVICE EXPENSES - 90.2% MANAGEMENT AND GENERAL EXPENSES - 8.5%
Changes in Net Assets or Fund Balances	Form 990, Part XI, line 9	Gain on exchange rate 6,966
Explanation of Responsibility	Form 990, Page 12, Part XII, Line 2c	The organization has a committee that assumes responsibility for oversight of the audit, the financial statements and selection of an independent accountant. This process has not changed since the prior year.
