INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

To the Board of Directors
Chicago Baseball Cancer Charities, Inc.
Lemont, Illinois

I have audited the accompanying statement of assets and net assets arising from cash transactions of Chicago Baseball Cancer Charities, Inc. (a non-profit organization) as of August 31, 2013 and 2012 and the related statements of revenue collected, expenses paid and change in net assets arising from cash transactions for the years then ended. These financial statements are the responsibility of the organization's management. My responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements.

I conducted my audits in accordance with accounting standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that I plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. I believe that my audit provides a reasonable basis for my opinion.

As described in Note 2, these financial statements are prepared on the cash receipts and disbursements basis of accounting, which is a comprehensive basis of accounting other than accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

In my opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the assets and net assets arising from cash transactions of Chicago Baseball Cancer Charities, Inc. as of the August 31, 2013 and 2012 and its revenues collected and expenses paid for the years then ended, on the basis of accounting described in Note 2.

CHICAGO BASEBALL CANCER CHARITIES, INC.
NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

AUGUST 31, 2013 AND 20012

1. Nature of Activities

Chicago Baseball Cancer Charities, Inc. is organized in the State of Illinois as a not-for-profit organization to raise funds for cancer research and cancer care by promoting celebrity golf outings and raffles in the names of former Chicago baseball personalities. It operates throughout the Chicago metropolitan area in its own name and in northern Indiana as Indiana Sports Charities. Funds raised are allocated to various hospitals and other organizations.

2. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Basis of Accounting --- The accompanying financial statements have been prepared on the cash receipts and disbursements basis of accounting, which is a comprehensive basis of accounting other than generally accepted accounting principles. Under that basis, the only transactions recorded are either cash receipts or cash disbursements; non-cash transactions are not recognized.

The cash basis differs from generally accepted accounting principles because the selling prices of some items sold at fundraising auctions and raffles prior to the date of the financial statements, but not collected by that date, are not reflected as accounts receivable.

Investments --- Investments in mutual funds with readily determinable market prices are reported at those values in the statements of assets and net assets. Certificates of deposit are reported at cost; interest on these certificates is recognized only when collected.

Donations of Goods and Services --- Goods offered at auction and as raffle prizes are donated; they are recorded as both receipts and disbursements at their estimated fair market values. Services provided by volunteers do not meet criteria for recognition as contributed services and are therefore not recorded in the financial statements.
