	Part I, Line 3	HealthEast Foundation leases employees from an affiliated organization, HealthEast Care System, a 501(c)(3) tax-exempt, non-profit organization. According to the Form 990 instructions for Part VII, we present the leased employees compensation on Part VII and Schedule J as if HealthEast Foundation compensated these employees. Therefore, the process to determine the compensation of the VP/Executive Director of HealthEast Foundation is described below. HealthEast Care System, an affiliated tax-exempt organization, engages an external consulting firm to review annually the compensation of the organization's VP/Executive Director. The review was last completed in November 2012. The process includes the external consulting firm evaluating current base salaries and total cash and benefits compared to comparable positions within the comparator group. The external firm presents its findings to the affiliated tax-exempt organization's Executive Committee of the Board and indicates any recommendations for change. The affiliated tax-exempt Executive Committee of the Board approves the salaries of the VP/Executive Director. The consulting firm issues a reasonable compensation letter to the affiliated tax-exempt organization's Board of Directors.
