Missouri Assoc. Family Career & Community Leaders of America

43-6072749

Part III, 4d: The expenses are for legislative shadowing projects, state leadership conference, state executive council planning meetings, scholarships less than $5,000. The revenues are State Leadership Conference, legislative shadowing and Life Smart projects.

Part VI, 9: The officers are students from schools across Missouri, the direct way to contact them is at their own school or home, but they can be reached indirectly through the address listed.

Part V, 10b: There are recommended policies and procedures that are shared with all the local chapters.

Part VI, 11: The report is given to the board and reviewed, compared to prior years. Any large difference or changes are carefully reviewed.

Part VI, 12c: FCCLA does not have its own physical organization, the accounting is handled by an employee of the Department of Elementary and Secondary Education in Missouri. The person is a state employee that follows internal controls instilled in the state position and are carried forward into the FCCLAS position. There are written internal controls for both this office and the chapters, but there are also state policies for conflict of interest and segregation of duties along with handling cash.

Part VI, 19: All the information is available to the public.
