	Form 990, Part VI, Section A, line 8b	There are no other committees that can act on behalf of the Board of Trustees
	Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 11	The full Board of Trustees does a general review of the federal Form 990 and the audit committee does a thorough review prior to filing with the Internal Revenue Service
	Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 12c	Through the Board of Trustees orientation done at the beginning of each academic year, a full explanation of this policy is reviewed. The Board of Trustees is also made up of many current parents and this perspective also brings with it a constant oversight of the appropriateness of how Board of Trustees members are not abusing or taking advantage of their role as Trustees. Finally, the School has legal counsel who is quite vigilant around these issues. Key employees are made aware of the conflict of interest policy on an annual basis during the Board of Trustees orientation and are held to the same standard as Trustees to assure they are not abusing or taking advantage of their role as a key employee.
	Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 15a	The Head Support and Review Committee annually reviews the Head of School's compensation package, and utilizes both local comparative statistics provided by the Association of Independent Schools of Greater Washington (AISGW) and The Association of Maryland Schools (AIMS) and national statistics provided by The National Association of Independent Schools (NAIS) based on size of school, and years of experience. A compensation package is then put into place for the Head of School. The full Board of Trustees does not vote on this particular compensation, but does vote for an annual budget each year, which obviously incorporates this compensation package.
	Form 990, Part VI, Section C, line 19	The School makes its governing documents, conflict of interest policy, and financial statements available to the public upon request.
