Dear Vicki:

Enclosed are the original and one copy of your income tax return for the period ended August 31, 2013 for

Central Baptist Hospital Foundation, Inc. as follows .

2012 990 - Return of Organization Exempt from Income Tax

Each original should be dated, signed and filed in accordance with the filing instructions. The copy should be retained for your files.

The enclosed return was prepared primarily from data and information which you submitted. You should review the return to ensure that there are no omissions or misstatements.

An additional copy of the Form 990 has been included, to be made available for public inspection upon request. Please note that all statements of donors' contributions are not subject to public inspection and have been removed, as appropriate.

Form 990 must be made available for public inspection for a period of three years, beginning with the date the return is filed. The available document must be an exact copy of the return and schedules (including schedule B), as filed with the IRS, except that the names and the addresses of the contributors may be excluded. Any organization that fails to comply with this provision is subject to a penalty of $20 for each day that inspection is not permitted, up to a maximum of $10,000. Any organization that willfully fails to comply shall be subject to an additional penalty of $5,000. You are also required to provide copies of the return if you receive such a request. Should you receive a request for inspection or for copies of your return, you may want to contact us for further details.

You have asked us to check the box on your return indicating that the taxing authorities can discuss the return directly with the Ernst & Young preparer who has signed it. We have indicated this choice on all of the returns that allow this option. These discussions are limited to certain issues related to the processing of the returns. Interactions with taxing authorities beyond the scope of processing issues may require an executed Power of Attorney if you would like EY to assist you. Any services that may be performed under this arrangement are not considered part of the scope of our regular engagement and therefore will be billed separately. This permission is effective until the due date, excluding extensions, of next year's tax return.

The "Taxpayer Copy" of your returns in electronic format is on the enclosed password protected, encrypted CD-ROM. Password instructions have been or will be provided to you under separate cover. The estimated shelf life of a CD-ROM is 5 to 10 years. Therefore it is recommended that you back-up this electronic taxpayer's copy of your returns to your hard drive or server for record retention. A bound hard copy of the return package is available upon written request to your EY client service team.

Prior to preparing your return(s), we provided you with summaries of transactions identified by the IRS as "Listed Transactions and Transactions of Interest" We asked questions to determine if you had participated in such a transaction or any other Reportable Transaction requiring disclosure with the tax return(s). We have prepared your tax return(s) based on the information you provided in response to this questionnaire. If you indicated that you have not participated in any such transactions or you have not responded to our inquiries related to this request, your tax return(s) was/were prepared without any disclosure statement for these transactions. Otherwise, we have prepared your tax return(s) in accordance with the information you provided to us, and have attached the appropriate "Disclosure Statement(s) For Reportable Transaction" to your tax return (if required). If a copy of a Disclosure Statement for Reportable Transactions must also be filed with the Office of Tax Shelter Analysis, we have included an extra copy of that disclosure statement and filing instructions for it. EY will not be liable for any penalties resulting from your failure to provide us with accurate and timely information regarding such transactions or to timely file the required disclosure statements. Similarly, certain states have added reporting requirements or require a copy of the federal disclosure be filed with the state. The terms and procedures above apply to each state that EY is engaged to prepare that has a similar reporting or disclosure requirement to the IRS rules.

Federally tax-exempt organizations classified under IRC 501(c) must comply with certain laws and regulations addressing public disclosure of certain forms and associated materials submitted to the IRS. These forms and associated materials generally include the three most recent information returns (Form 990/990EZ/990PF and/or 990T) as well as the application for tax exempt status.

We sincerely appreciate this opportunity to serve you. Please contact us if you have questions concerning the returns or if we may be of further assistance.

Very truly yours,

Diane L. Bean
Senior Manager
