	Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 11
	Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 12c	The organization requires the board of directors and officers to complete a conflict of interest disclosure statement annually. The board as a whole is responsible for oversight of the policy, and monitoring for any potential conflicts. Should any conflict of interest present itself, the interested party would excuse themselves from the decision making process.
	Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 15	The compensation committee of the board of directors determines appropriate compensation for the organization's CEO, top executives, and other key employees. In determining compensation packages, comparability data provided by the HR manager is referenced. The compensation committee reviews the comparability data and proposes a compensation package to the board as a whole for revision and approval. Compensation decisions are documented in the board minutes and are reviewed on an annual basis for appropriateness.
	Form 990, Part VI, Section C, line 18	The organization's governing documents, conflict of interest policy, and financial statements are available to the public upon request. Financial statements and the organization's letter of determination are also available on the organization's website.
	Form 990, Part VI, Section C, line 19	The organization makes its Form 1023 and Form 990 filings available to the public upon request.
Estimated Other Compensation from the Organization & Related Orgs	Form 990, Part VII, Section A, Column (F)	The majority of the amounts listed in column F represent an increase in the actuarial value of the organization's defined benefit pension plan. This change is associated with a drop in the index rate and represents a change in the value of the plan, not a dispersal of additional compensation. Exact amounts associated with the increase for each individual are as follows: Susan C Rowan $89,344; Richard S Mazur $75,503; Robert A Birkeneder $58,142.
