Identifier	Return Reference	Explanation
Part X	Part X FIN48 Footnote	RIHF, as a not-for-profit corporation, is recognized under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and is exempt from Federal income taxes. RIHF recognizes the effect of income tax positions only if those positions are more likely than not to be sustained. Recognized income tax positions are measured at the largest amount of benefit that is greater than fifty percent likely to be realized upon settlement. Changes in measurement are reflected in the period in which the change in judgment occurs. RIHF did not recognize the effect of any income tax positions during the fiscal year ended September 30, 2013.
Part V, Line 4	Part V, Line 4 Intended uses of the endowment fund	Rhode Island Hospital Foundation's (RIHF's) endowment funds were established for a variety of purposes, including both donor-restricted endowment funds and funds designated by RIHF to function as endowments. RIHF's largest permanently restricted endowment generates income which is donor-designated, to support critical components necessary to create a collaborative and synergistic environment to better treat and unravel the mysteries of the brain and nervous system via a groundbreaking, new Neurosciences Institute at RIH. RIHF maintains another large permanently restricted endowment fund, the income from which defrays the cost of charity care provided by RIH. Income from RIHF's other notable permanently restricted endowments supports (1)nursing education, (2)HCH's Child Protection Program in its provision of services to abused and neglected children, and (3) pediatric asthma and allergy care. The largest temporarily restricted funds held by RIHF are used to support pediatric care. RIHF's unrestricted endowment is used for various needs of RIH and to partially defray fundraising expenses.

Sch J, Part I, Line 7	Part I, Line 7 Non-Fixed payments not listed above	The Lifespan Annual Incentive Compensation Plan provides a financial award opportunity for designated members of management, based on quantified objectives that are approved in advance by the Compensation Committee of the Lifespan Corporation Board of Directors. A specified level of financial performance must be met before any award is earned. The objectives vary from year to year and generally include various aspects of financial measures in addition to non-financial performance measures. For certain participants in the Annual Incentive Compensation Plan, the award opportunity is divided into two pools. The first pool represents 80% of any earned incentive award, based on the achievement of the team performance objectives. The remaining 20% pool is distributed on an individual basis to participants at the discretion of the CEO, in each case subject to approval by the Compensation Committee of the Lifespan Corporation Board of Directors.
Sch J, Part I, Line 1a	Part I, Line 1a Relevant information in regards to selections on 1a	Tax Indemnification and Gross-up Payments: The Lifespan Executive Long Term Disability program provides financial protection to designated Lifespan executives in the event that they become disabled. Premiums are paid to the insurance carrier by the insureds on an after-tax basis to allow for income replacement at a reasonable cost. The income associated with the premiums is grossed-up to cover the total cost of the benefit as provided in the Lifespan Executive Benefit Plan and is included in Medicare wages, more specifically on Schedule J, Part II, Column B (iii) Social Club Dues: The job responsibilities of certain executives include development of relationships with business leaders and donors. Those relationships are facilitated by the ability to meet in private sessions during which focused business discussions take place. The Hope and University Clubs, which require individual memberships, are places in Providence where businessmen and women, civic, community and social leaders can gather in a businesslike atmosphere. The cost of membership is considered by Lifespan to be reasonable and necessary and thus a qualified business expense not taxable to the employee. IRS regulations regarding documentation requirements are followed for any payments made for meetings held at the respective club, including the business purpose and nature of the business benefit derived, the nature of the business discussion or activity, and the identity and business relationship of attendees.

	Form 990, Part VI, Lines 15 a & b	The following applies to Lifespan and all of its affiliates, including Rhode Island Hospital Foundation EXECUTIVE COMPENSATIONLifespan's executive compensation philosophy balances appropriate stewardship of resources and the need to be competitive in recruiting and retaining talented individuals. It incorporates market-competitive and performance-related principles, and covers the President and CEO of Lifespan as well as other officers, senior management, and key employees. Lifespan's executive compensation program complies with both law and contemporary ethical norms, and is administered consistent with the organization's tax-exempt status under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code (IRC) and the avoidance of transactions subject to intermediate sanctions under Section 4958 of the IRC. Executive compensation is also administered consistent with Lifespan's Corporate Compliance Policy on Excess Benefit Transactions. The Compensation Committee of the Lifespan Corporation Board of Directors (the Committee), comprised of disinterested Lifespan and affiliate Board members, is responsible for diligent oversight of executive compensation to ensure compliance with IRC requirements. Its duties include: * Approving eligibility for participation in the executive compensation program * Approving changes in compensation for existing executive participants * Approving guidelines, such as salary ranges and contract terms, on appropriate levels of compensation for other key employees * Approving new, and modifying or terminating existing, executive compensation plans including, but not limited to, annual and incentive and executive benefit plans * Approving performance objectives associated with Lifespan's annual plan, including measuring points, and using audited actual performance relative to these objectives as a precondition to approving the payment of any awards under the plan * Authorizing periodic performance benchmark studies to be conducted for purposes of assessing Lifespan's performance within the healthcare industry and the degree to which total remuneration levels at Lifespan are generally commensurate with Lifespan performance relative to healthcare industry performance * Conducting an annual performance review of Lifespan's Chief Executive Officer. The Chair of the Committee conducts and documents this review, based on his/her observations and interpretation of feedback from members of the Board of Directors.

	Form 990, Part VI, Line 12c	Lifespan Corporation has a Conflict of Interest Policy that is applicable to all affiliates, including Rhode Island Hospital Foundation, which is administered by Lifespan's Corporate Compliance Department as follows: Each designated person subject to Lifespan's conflict of interest policy is required to provide Lifespan with an initial disclosure statement and thereafter an annual statement attesting that (i) the designated person has read and is familiar with this policy, and (ii) the designated person and, to the best of his/her knowledge, family members, have not in the past engaged in, are not presently engaging in, or plan to engage in, any activity which contravenes this policy. If, at any time during the course of employment or association, a designated person has reason to believe that an existing or contemplated activity may contravene this policy, the person shall submit a full written description of the activity to the Lifespan Compliance Officer or the Office of the General Counsel to seek a determination as to whether the contemplated activity does or does not contravene this policy. This requirement shall be acknowledged as part of the annual performance evaluation process. If the activity in question involves either the Chief Executive Officer, the Senior Vice President and General Counsel, or a Trustee, a full written disclosure must be made to, and a determination sought from, the Chairman of the Board of Directors of Lifespan Corporation. Annually, the Lifespan Compliance Officer shall review and report to the Lifespan Executive Corporate Compliance Committee and to the Lifespan Audit and Compliance Committee on the administration of this policy. Failure on the part of any designated person to comply with this policy, including failure to submit in a timely fashion the conflict of interest disclosure statement, will be grounds for removal from his/her position and/or termination of his/her employment with Lifespan.

Other transfers to HCH included (1) $254,292 to partially fund the installation of the GetWellNetw ork (the Netw ork) on all HCH inpatient units. The Netw ork provides patient education and entertainment by turning in-room television monitors into interactive experiences. In support of HCH's commitment to provide family-centered care, the Netw ork not only allows for on-demand access to content by patients, but also allows a patient's doctors and nurses to deliver content to a patient's bedside using functions such as a "Question of the Day", educational programs specific to managing a child's diagnosis, or the Discharge Pathw ay program that helps guide families through discharge. These features allow caregivers to obtain insight and support their primary mission of providing top-quality care to their patients. In addition to improving the patient experience, the Netw ork hosts a management console that provides HCH administration with valuable and quick feedback on service delivery as well as operational and regulatory information, all of which can be used to help future patients have a better hospital stay, (2) $259,718 to support Pediatric Orthopedics research, and (3) $200,800 to support HCH's Pediatric Cancer Research Fund.

Form 990, Part VI, Line 11b	Form 990, Part VI, Line 11b Form 990 Review Process	The preparation and filing of the Form 990 and supporting schedules is the responsibility of the Chief Financial Officer and Lifespan's Finance Department, with review by Lifespan's tax advisors, KPMG LLP. The Form 990 is prepared by the accounting staff upon completion of Lifespan's annual independent audit and reviewed by the Corporate Services Tax Compliance Manager. Further review is performed by the Director of Finance and the Vice President of Finance - Corporate Services. Once the draft Form 990 is complete, the Director of Finance forwards it with all supporting worksheets to KPMG, which then reviews the completed form in detail. The Director of Finance answers questions as they arise and provides additional information as needed. KPMG provides the Director of Finance with any recommended changes which are reviewed, and if agreed upon, are incorporated into the return. The draft Form 990 is then provided to the Chief Financial Officer for final management review. Prior to filing the return with the Internal Revenue Service, a copy of the entire form is sent to the Foundation's Board of Trustees in advance of its next Board meeting, at which the Chief Financial Officer discusses the highlights of the Form. All questions and concerns of the members of the Board are addressed by the Chief Financial Officer and incorporated into the Form 990 when appropriate. Once the Form 990 is complete and ready to be filed, the members of the Board are notified via email that a copy of the final version of the Form 990 is accessible through a password protected website portal. The Chief Financial Officer is authorized to file the Form 990.
