Part X	Part X FIN48 Footnote	The Foundation, as a not-for-profit corporation, is recognized under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and is exempt from Federal income taxes. The Foundation recognizes the effect of income tax positions only if those positions are more likely than not to be sustained. Recognized income tax positions are measured at the largest amount of benefit that is greater than fifty percent likely to be realized upon settlement. Changes in measurement are reflected in the period in which the change in judgment occurs. The Foundation did not recognize the effect of any income tax positions during the fiscal year ended September 30, 2013.
Part V, Line 4	Part V, Line 4 Intended uses of the endowment fund	The Foundation's permanently restricted endowments generate income which is donor-designated for shared chairs through The Warren Alpert Medical School of Brown University, more specifically in interventional cardiology and diagnostic imaging. The largest temporarily restricted funds held by the Foundation are used to support cardiology and other health care programs sponsored by Lifespan and certain of its affiliates.

Identifier	Return Reference	Explanation
Grantmaker's Description of How Grants are Used		The Foundation engages in philanthropic activities to support the mission and purposes of Lifespan Corporation and certain of its affiliates. During the year ended September 30, 2013, the Foundation made temporarily restricted net asset transfers to specified health care programs of Lifespan affiliates. A master database of the Foundation's temporarily restricted funds is maintained as the primary source for identifying each fund's restriction, the availability of the current balance and the authorized personnel for the respective fund. The database contains the fund's name, primary reporting department, most recent month end balance, fund purpose/restriction, and the management responsible for the fund. Expenditures (purchase requisitions, work order requisitions, check requests and employee reimbursements) from the Foundation's temporarily restricted funds must be presented to the Lifespan Finance Department for approval prior to processing. Each request is reviewed to ensure the availability of funds and that the expense/purchase is both in conformity with the fund's restriction and approved by the required levels of authorized personnel referenced in the database.

Sch J, Part I, Line 7	Part I, Line 7 Non-Fixed payments not listed above	The Lifespan Annual Incentive Compensation Plan provides a financial award opportunity for designated members of management, based on quantified objectives that are approved in advance by the Compensation Committee of the Lifespan Corporation Board of Directors. A specified level of financial performance must be met before any award is earned. The objectives vary from year to year and generally include various aspects of financial measures in addition to non-financial performance measures. For certain participants in the Lifespan Annual Incentive Compensation Plan, the award opportunity is divided into two pools. The first pool represents 80% of any earned incentive award, based on the achievement of the team performance objectives. The remaining 20% pool is distributed on an individual basis to participants at the discretion of the CEO, in each case subject to approval by the Compensation Committee of the Lifespan Corporation Board of Directors.
Sch J, Part I, Line 1a	Part I, Line 1a Relevant information in regards to selections on 1a	Tax Indemnification and Gross-up Payments: The Lifespan Executive Long Term Disability program provides financial protection to designated Lifespan executives in the event that they become disabled. Premiums are paid to the insurance carrier by the insureds on an after-tax basis to allow for income replacement at a reasonable cost. The income associated with the premiums is grossed-up to cover the total cost of the benefit as provided in the Lifespan Executive Benefit Plan and is included in Medicare wages, more specifically on Schedule J, Part II, Column B (iii) Social Club Dues: The job responsibilities of certain executives include development of relationships with business leaders and donors. Those relationships are facilitated by the ability to meet in private sessions during which focused business discussions take place. The Hope and University Clubs, which require individual memberships, are places in Providence where businessmen and women, civic, community and social leaders can gather in a businesslike atmosphere. The cost of membership is considered by Lifespan to be reasonable and necessary and thus a qualified business expense not taxable to the employee. IRS regulations regarding documentation requirements are followed for any payments made for meetings held at the respective club, including the business purpose and nature of the business benefit derived, the nature of the business discussion or activity, and the identity and business relationship of attendees.

	FORM 990, PART VI, LINES 15 a&b	The following applies to Lifespan and all of its affiliates, including Lifespan Foundation EXECUTIVE COMPENSATIONLifespan's executive compensation philosophy balances appropriate stewardship of resources and the need to be competitive in recruiting and retaining talented individuals. It incorporates market-competitive and performance-related principles, and covers the President and CEO of Lifespan as well as other officers, senior management, and key employees. Lifespan's executive compensation program complies with both law and contemporary ethical norms, and is administered consistent with the organization's tax-exempt status under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code (IRC) and the avoidance of transactions subject to intermediate sanctions under Section 4958 of the IRC. Executive compensation is also administered consistent with Lifespan's Corporate Compliance Policy on Excess Benefit Transactions. The Compensation Committee of the Lifespan Corporation Board of Directors (the Committee), comprised of disinterested Lifespan and affiliate Board members, is responsible for diligent oversight of executive compensation to ensure compliance with IRC requirements. Its duties include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> * Approving eligibility for participation in the executive compensation program * Approving changes in compensation for existing executive participants * Approving guidelines, such as salary ranges and contract terms, on appropriate levels of compensation for other key employees * Approving new, and modifying or terminating existing, executive compensation plans including, but not limited to, annual incentive and executive benefit plans * Approving performance objectives associated with Lifespan's annual incentive plan, including measuring points, and using audited actual performance relative to these objectives as a precondition to approving the payment of any awards under the plan * Authorizing periodic performance benchmark studies to be conducted for purposes of assessing Lifespan's performance within the healthcare industry and the degree to which total remuneration levels at Lifespan are generally commensurate with Lifespan performance relative to healthcare industry performance * Conducting an annual performance review of Lifespan's Chief Executive Officer. The Chair of the Committee conducts and documents this review, based on his/her observations and interpretation of feedback from members of the Board of Directors.

Lifespan's Chief Executive Officer works closely with the Committee to make recommendations on the above topics and keep the Committee informed about contemplated compensation changes for executives and other key employees, as well as candidates for these roles. The CEO also provides periodic updates to the Committee regarding Lifespan's performance relative to compensation-related performance objectives. The Committee's deliberations and actions are documented in minutes prepared for each meeting. PROCESS FOR DETERMINING COMPENSATION Valuation of Total Cash and Total Remuneration No less frequently than annually, the Committee receives and reviews a total cash compensation valuation of all existing executive compensation program participants prepared by its independent compensation consultant. Annually, the Committee also receives and reviews a total remuneration valuation of all existing executive compensation participants. Base Salary Actions The CEO recommends any salary adjustments for participants in the executive compensation program, using the results of the valuation study and his/her assessment of individual performance or other pertinent information, for the Committee's consideration. New Participants in Executive Compensation Program With respect to compensation offers for individuals expected to participate in the executive compensation program, the Office of the President works with the Committee's independent compensation consultant or relies on information previously provided by the consultant to establish a range of reasonable cash compensation within which recruitment is expected to conclude through acceptance of a reasonable compensation offer.

Form 990, Part VI, Line 11b	Form 990, Part VI, Line 11b Form 990 Review Process	The preparation and filing of the Form 990 and supporting schedules is the responsibility of the Chief Financial Officer and Lifespan's Finance Department, with review by Lifespan's tax advisors, KPMG LLP. The Form 990 is prepared by the accounting staff upon completion of Lifespan's annual independent audit and reviewed by the Corporate Services Tax Compliance Manager. Further review is performed by the Director of Finance and the Vice President of Finance - Corporate Services. Once the draft Form 990 is complete, the Director of Finance forwards it with all supporting worksheets to KPMG, which then reviews the completed form in detail. The Director of Finance answers questions as they arise and provides additional information as needed. KPMG provides the Director of Finance with any recommended changes which are reviewed, and if agreed upon, are incorporated into the return. The draft Form 990 is then provided to the Chief Financial Officer for final management review. Prior to filing the return with the Internal Revenue Service, a copy of the entire form is sent to the Foundation's Board of Trustees in advance of its next Board meeting, at which the Chief Financial Officer discusses the highlights of the Form. All questions and concerns of the members of the Board are addressed by the Chief Financial Officer and incorporated into the Form 990 when appropriate. Once the Form 990 is complete and ready to be filed, the members of the Board are notified via email that a copy of the final version of the Form 990 is accessible through a password protected website portal. The Chief Financial Officer is authorized to file the Form 990.
