3Did the organization cease conducting, or make significant changes in how it conducts, any program services?

If “Yes,” describe these changes on Schedule O

4Describe the organization’s program service accomplishments for each of its three largest program services, as measured by expenses Section 501(c)(3) and 501(c)(4) organizations are required to report the amount of grants and allocations to others, the total expenses, and revenue, if any, for each program service reported

4a

(Code) (Expenses $ 583,124 including grants of $ 303,920) (Revenue $)

Patient Care GLHF advances the comprehensive care for people with bleeding disorders through its support of an integrated regional network of hemophilia treatment centers through a grant from HRSA The design of the hemophilia treatment care network provides patients with access to multiple disciplines, each of which has specific expertise in bleeding disorder care The hemophilia model has been one of the most successfully managed public health programs in the United States The substantial socioeconomic benefits of comprehensive services for the hemophilia population are well documented and include increased employment, fewer days lost from work and school, decreased hospital in-patient-days, increased numbers of patients with third-party coverage, lower cost of care, and decreased health care resource utilization More importantly, studies indicate that persons receiving care through the hemophilia treatment center network have a 40% reduction in risk of death despite having more severe clinical symptoms compared to those receiving non-treatment-center care

4b

(Code) (Expenses $ 161,279 including grants of $ 130,846) (Revenue $)

Research GLHF supports the systematic coordinated assessment and recording of health outcomes of individuals with bleeding disorders in a national database GLHF is a sub grantee of the American Thrombosis and Hemostatis Network (ATHN) for the CDC Surveillance project This database monitors the health of the bleeding disorders population with the goal of optimized quality of life for those affected by bleeding disorders

4c

(Code) (Expenses $ 122,900 including grants of $ 64,722) (Revenue $ 8,134)

Public Education GLHF supports a comprehensive network of health professionals and patients & their families in providing public education about bleeding disorders Health care professionals- through the federal grant supported regional network - educate teachers, coaches, emergency room personnel, dentists and other individuals who provide support to individuals with bleeding disorders to ensure safe and healthy outcomes for their patients In addition, GLHF volunteers attend health fairs and other events to heighten the public's understanding of bleeding disorders and the symptoms to encourage women, in particular, to seek medical support for otherwise potentially undiagnosed conditions GLHF also supports a strong volunteer advocacy program which educates legislators and other public officials on the interests and challenges related to public policy issues

(Code) (Expenses $ 223,644 including grants of $ 147,738) (Revenue $ 35,000)

	Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 11
	Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 12c	The organization implements an annual certification. Compliance is self-monitored and board members have consistently held themselves, and each other, to high standards of abstaining during discussion and voting on issues with which they either have, or may be perceived to have, a conflict.
	Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 15a	Yes. Salary range information for executive directors by organization size and area of focus was obtained from the Nonprofit Center of Milwaukee. The salary range information was reviewed with the Executive Committee and after discussion and deliberation, an appropriate salary range was defined. The salary of the Executive Director meets the range as defined.
	Form 990, Part VI, Section C, line 19	Governing documents, conflict of interest policy, and financial statements are available to the public upon request.
