|                                 | Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 15a | Staff and management pay is evaluated from time to time, but not less than every 18 months, using primarily the Chamber of Commerce wage and salary survey. This survey is far more detailed and extensive than any HRF would possibly conduct on its own. The Chief Executive Officer and the Director of Human Resources review the Chamber's salary survey and set the base range of pay in the HRF salary plan from appropriate jobs covered in the Chamber survey. The benchmark jobs in the HRF salary plan are the Vice Presidents positions, since these jobs are most closely mirrored in the Chamber survey. All other pay levels are based on the benchmark jobs in accordance with past practice and policy, including the salary schedule for the Chief Executive Officer.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |
