What is the organization's primary exempt purpose?
Book Wish Foundation's mission is to provide reading relief for people in crisis. In partnership with organizations that work on the ground in some of the most distressed places around the world, we support reading to improve education, mental health, and job training. The people we help often need more than books in order to read. For example, they may need reading glasses, solar lighting, a library building, literacy textbooks, or school supplies. All of this aid can help people to read, but to provide relief, what they are reading must be relevant to their lives. We match books and other aid as specifically as possible to the crisis situation, culture, language, demographics, educational history, and aspirations of our recipients.

Describe the organization's program service accomplishments for each of its three largest program services, as measured by expenses. In a clear and concise manner, describe the services provided, the number of persons benefited, and other relevant information for each program title.

28 Ongoing selection and acquisition (primarily through donations this year) of books to establish a library in Iridimi Refugee Camp, eastern Chad, home to 19,000 refugees from Darfur.
